

Son

When you wear this bracelet, always remember...

I closed my eyes for but a moment and suddenly a man stood where a boy used to be. I may not be able to carry you now in my arms, but I will always carry you in my heart.
You have given me so many reasons to be proud of the man you have become, but the proudest moment for me is telling others that you are MY SON.

Love, Mom

giving communion in Christ to others in the form of new Christian communities for the benefit of the world But can the church be a welcome gift In Giving the Church leading ecclesiologist Michael Moynagh draws together recent thinking from the worlds of ecclesiology and missiology with significant sociological work on the idea of gift to provide a much needed theological rationale for some of the key missiological and ecclesiological movements in today s church Part 1 reworks some of the big themes in ecclesiology from this giving perspective the nature of the church the four marks the visible hidden church and inclusion exclusion Part 2 meanwhile draws on the extensive literature on gifts to offer an ethical framework for giving the church to others and uses this framework to provide fresh readings of liberationist herald and eucharistic models of the church It concludes by arguing that giving the church away can be a route to making the church a more attractive gift
