Son Of A Servant The Story Of The Evolution Of A Human Being 1849 1867:

The Son of a Servant August Strindberg, 1966      Christian Masculinity Yvonne Maria Werner, 2011 In the mid nineteenth century when the idea of religion as a private matter connected to the home and the female sphere won acceptance among the bourgeois elite Christian religious practices began to be associated with femininity and soft values Contemporary critics claimed that religion was incompatible with true manhood and today's scholars talk about a feminization of religion But was this really the case What expression did male religious faith take at a time when Christianity was losing its status as the foundation of society This is the starting point for the research presented in Christian Masculinity Here we meet Catholic and Protestant men struggling with and for their Christian faith as priests missionaries and laymen as well as ideas and reflections on Christian masculinity in media fiction and correspondence of various kinds Some men engaged in social and missionary work or strove to harness the masculine combative spirit to Christian ends while others were eager to show the male character of Christian virtues This book not only illustrates the importance of religion for the understanding of gender construction but also the need to take into consideration confessional and institutional aspects of religious identity

Handbook of Autobiography / Autofiction Martina Wagner-Egelhaaf, 2019-01-29 Autobiographical writings have been a major cultural genre from antiquity to the present time General questions of the literary as e g the relation between literature and reality truth and fiction the dependency of author narrator and figure or issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers
