Song of Songs and Ecclesiastes T. Givón, 2019-05-15 Qohelet Ecclesiastes The two books slipped into the Jewish and eventually Christian Canon by a series of misrepresentations The first Song of Songs is linguistically the latest book along the Biblical Hebrew dialect continuum perhaps as late as 300 100 BC to judge by its language which closely resembles Mishnaic Hebrew 2nd Cent AD The book is a lush carnal poetic account of an illicit love affair where lusty exchanges between the female beloved and her male lover are interspersed with rustic love songs The ultimate provenance of the text may be older than the time it was recruited into the Canon or the time suggested by its late dialect The second book Qohelet is linguistically earlier on the Biblical Hebrew dialect continuum though still following the return from the Babylonian exile ca 550 BC Unlike Song of Songs which is linguistically coherent and bears all the marks of having been produced by a native speaker or speakers Qohelet is replete with non native lexical and grammatical usage and was most likely produced by a speaker or speakers of Aramaic the lingua franca of the Persian empire and the returning exiles Multiple English translations of the two books exist Nonetheless in one way or another all previous translations suffer from two main drawbacks First their interpretation of the grammar and on occasion also the vocabulary of Biblical Hebrew is sometimes questionable And second the poetic quality of their English leaves much to be desired paling in comparison with the stark beauty of the Hebrew original This book attempts to do justice to both the contents and form of these two magnificent deliciously subversive poetic works
