The Bab Ballads William Schwenck Gilbert, 1904 About thirty years since several of The Bab Ballads most of which had appeared from time to time in the pages of Fun were collected by me and published by Messrs George Routledge and Sons This volume passed through several editions and in due course was followed by a second series under the title of More Bab Ballads which achieved a popularity equal to that of its predecessor Subsequently excerpts were made from these two volumes and under the title of Fifty Bab Ballads had a very considerable sale but I soon discovered that in making the selection for this volume I had discarded certain Ballads that were greater favourites with my readers than with me Nevertheless this issue was followed by many editions English and American of Bab Ballads More Bab Ballads and Fifty Bab Ballads to the no little bewilderment of such of the public as had been good enough to concern themselves with my verses So it became desirable for our own private ends that this confusion should be definitely cleared up and thus it came to pass that a reissue of the two earlier collections in one volume was decided upon Author's note
