The Animals Garry Winogrand,1969 An Introduction to Animals and Visual Culture Randy Malamud,2012-05-30

How and why do people frame animals so pervasively and what are the ramifications of this habit For animals being put into a cultural frame a film a website a pornographic tableau an advertisement a cave drawing a zoo means being taken out of their natural contexts leaving them somehow displaced and decontextualized Human vision of the animal equates to power over the animal We envision ourselves as monarchs of all we survey but our dismal record of polluting and destroying vast swaths of nature shows that we are indeed not masters of the ecosphere A more ethically accurate stance in our relationship to animals should thus challenge the omnipotence of our visual access to them The Museum as Muse Kynaston

McShine,1999 Published on the occasion of the exhibition of the same name held at the Museum of Modern Art New York March 14 June 1 1999 Photographic Art Market ,2003 The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M.

Marter,2011 Arranged in alphabetical order these 5 volumes encompass the history of the cultural development of America with over 2300 entries Zoo Renewal Lisa Uddin,2015-04-01 Why do we feel bad at the zoo In a fascinating counterhistory of American zoos in the 1960s and 1970s Lisa Uddin revisits the familiar narrative of zoo reform from naked cages to more naturalistic enclosures She argues that reform belongs to the story of cities and feelings toward many of their human inhabitants In Zoo Renewal Uddin demonstrates how efforts to make the zoo more natural and a haven for particular species reflected white fears about the American city and pointedly how the shame many visitors felt in observing confined animals drew on broader anxieties about race and urban life Examining the campaign against cages renovations at the National Zoo in Washington D C and the San Diego Zoo and the cases of a rare female white Bengal tiger and a collection of southern white rhinoceroses Uddin unpacks episodes that challenge assumptions that zoos are about other worlds and other creatures and expand the history of U S urbanism Uddin shows how the drive to protect endangered species and to ensure larger safer zoos was shaped by struggles over urban decay suburban growth and the dilemmas of postwar American whiteness In so doing Zoo Renewal ultimately reveals how feeling bad or good at the zoo is connected to our feelings about American cities and their residents The Education of a Photographer Steven Heller,Charles H.
