Language Education Policy: The Arab Minority in Israel M. Amara, Abd Al-Rahman Mar'i, 2005-12-11 In this book we will explore in more detail some aspects of the Arab Jewish divide which raise fundamental questions regarding the place of the Arabs and Arab language education in the Jewish State More specifically the aim of this book is to describe and analyze language education in the Arab society in Israel from the establishment of the state in 1948 until today For this purpose internal processes which are embedded within the Arab population itself were examined such as the socio economic condition of the population the diglossic situation in the Arabic language and the wide use of Hebrew among Arabic speakers Furthermore the book also deals with external processes such as the policy of control and inspection of the Ministry of Education over the Arab education system in general and on language education in particular the dominance of Hebrew and the definition and perception of Israel as a Jewish State The influence of both internal and external processes on language education and learning achievements will also be extensively discussed

Canada's Foreign Policy and the Arab-Israel Conflict Kamaran M.K. Mondal, 2022-01-10 Using the historical and comparative approaches of study this book traces the roots of the Arab Israel conflict in general and the Palestine Israel conflict in particular as well as Canada's role in the thorny issue of the conflict and peace processes through multilateral fora and institutions It shows that the Canadian perception and policy while uniquely Canadian have operated within the broader Anglo American framework of support for a Jewish homeland and the two state theory The book argues that three significant factors have impacted Canada's outlook and actions Firstly Canada's perception and policy towards the Arab Israel conflict have been shaped by religio cultural and historical factors rather than by its acclaimed Liberal Internationalism Second growing economic and commercial interests after the 1973 Arab Israel War and its perceived national interest made it adopt a more nuanced and balanced approach towards the conflict Finally it argues that the elite perception the initiatives by

Lester Pearson and the presence of an active Jewish community have had a significant influence on Canadian perception towards the Arab Israel conflict

When and How the Arabs and Muslims Immigrated to the Land of Israel Rivka Shpak Lissak, 2021-04 The goal of the Palestinian national movement including the Palestinian Authority is to rewrite the history of the Land of Israel The Palestinian Arabs developed several agendas about the history of the country one claiming that they are the ancient population of the country they call Falastin Palestine and the Jews have no historical claim on that country Professor Shlomo Sand adopted one of their agendas and claims that the Romans never exiled the Jews 2 000 years ago and the Jews converted to Islam during the Arab Muslim occupation of the country 640 1099 He concludes that the Palestinians are the descendants of these Jews and the country belongs to them The historical facts however tell a different story This volume brings historical and archeological research on the ethnic religious composition of the population of the country from the Arab Muslim occupation until World War I The second volume will deal with the years 1918 1948 until the establishment of the State of Israel This series aims to disprove the thesis that the Arabs in Israel are the ancient population of the country and prove that most of them are descendants of immigrants who came to the country from Arab and Muslim lands in small numbers during a slow process taking hundreds of years Some were invited by the various occupation governments who wished to settle the unpopulated regions of the country Between the end of the 19th century and the start of World War I in 1914 the immigration became greater due to the economic opportunities and employment created by the Zionist movement Jewish investors and Christian organizations The economic development created much better opportunities compared with the situation in their home countries
