The Hidden Treasures of the Ancient Qabalah Elias Gewurz,2005-11-01 Strength and beauty are the two attractive elements of our nature but the masculine strength and the feminine beauty are in reality one and the same thing That which we admire as strength in the man is the same element that fascinates us as beauty in the woman from The Feminine Elements in Man and Their Redeeming Power Kabbalah the Secret Doctrine of the Jews was for many centuries the exclusive province of religious scholars who could read the old Hebrew Chaldaic language in which it was set down in the 12th century when its mysteries were already ancient But the thirst for spiritual enlightenment in our complicated age ensured that its arcane wisdom would inevitably come to light Here in this 1918 edition we can share in the beautiful insights of Kabbalah into the difficulties of attaining peace the dilemmas of justice and mercy the need for spiritual regeneration the soulful exploration of time and space and the arcane paths of union with God Anyone with a yearning for knowledge of the numinous and the serenity it brings will find succor here ELIAS GEWURZ also wrote Mysteries of the Qabalah 1922 and Beautiful Thoughts of the Ancient Hebrews 1924

The Routledge Research Companion to Nineteenth-Century British Literature and Science John Holmes, Sharon Ruston, 2017-05-18 Tracing the continuities and trends in the complex relationship between literature and science in the long nineteenth century this companion provides scholars with a comprehensive authoritative and up to date foundation for research in this field In intellectual material and social terms the transformation undergone by Western culture over the period was unprecedented Many of these changes were grounded in the growth of science Yet science was not a cultural monolith then any more than it is now and its development was shaped by competing world views To cover the full range of literary engagements with science in the nineteenth century this companion consists of twenty seven chapters by experts in the field which explore crucial social and intellectual contexts for the interactions between literature and science how science affected different genres of writing and the importance of individual scientific disciplines and concepts within literary culture Each chapter has its own extensive bibliography The volume as a whole is rounded out with a synoptic introduction by the editors and an afterword by the eminent historian of nineteenth century science Bernard Lightman

Shadow of the Third Century Alvin Boyd Kuhn, 2019-01-13 Shadow of the Third Century A Revaluation of Christianity first published in 1949 begins with the assertions that a true history of Christianity has never before been written and that the roots of the Christian religion lie in earlier religions and philosophies of the ancient world The author Alvin Boyd Kuhn asserts that Christianity as we know it took the form it did due to a degeneration of knowledge rather than to an energization produced by a new release of light and truth into the world In the ancient world knowledge was commonly passed down by esoteric traditions its inner meaning known only to the initiated The Gospels according to Kuhn should therefore be understood as symbolic narratives rather than as history Sacred scriptures are always written in a language of myth and symbol and the Christian religion threw away and lost their true meaning when it mistranslated this language into alleged history instead of reading it as spiritual allegory This literalism necessarily led to a religion antagonistic toward philosophy Moreover it produced a religion that failed to recognize its continuity with and debt to earlier esoteric schools As evidence of this Kuhn finds that many of the gospel stories and sayings have parallels in earlier works in particular those of Egypt and Greece The transformation of Jesus followers into Pauline Christians drew on these sources Moreover the misunderstanding of true Christianity led to the excesses of misguided asceticism Overall the book seeks to serve as a clarion call to the modern world to return to the primitive Christianity which the founder of Christian theology Augustine proclaimed had been the true religion of all humanity With its many citations from earlier works Shadow of the Third Century also serves as a bibliographic introduction to alternative histories of Christianity
