Confronting the Past Seymour Gitin,J. Edward Wright,J. P. Dessel,2006 William G Dever is recognized as the doyen of North American archaeologist historians who work in the field of the ancient Levant He is best known as the director of excavations at the site of Gezer but has worked at numerous other sites and his many students have led dozens of other expeditions He has been editor of the Bulletin of the American Schools of Oriental Research was for many years professor in the influential archaeology program at the University of Arizona and now in retirement continues actively to write and publish In this volume 46 of his colleagues and students contribute essays in his honor reflecting the broad scope of his interests particularly in terms of the historical implications of archaeology Walled Up to Heaven Aaron Burke, 2018-07-17 As the first comprehensive study of fortification systems and defensive strategies in the Levant during the Middle Bronze Age ca 1900 to 1500 B C E Walled up to Heaven is an indispensable contribution to the study of this period and of early warfare in the ancient Near East Although archaeologists and ancient historians alike have discussed a variety of theories regarding the origin and cultural significance of the construction of earthen ramparts during the Middle Bronze Age only this work addresses these questions in detail In a tour de force Burke traces the diachronic evolution and geographic distribution of the architectural features and settlement strategies connected with the emergence of Middle Bronze Age defenses in the Levant By synthesizing historical and archaeological data from Mesopotamia and Egypt as well as the Levant he reveals the interconnectedness of the Near Eastern world during the first half of the second millennium to an extent not recently considered The result is a detailed employment of cognitive social and dirt archaeology to reconstruct the political social military and cultural implications of the construction of monumental defenses and the development of defensive networks during the period of Amorite hegemony in the Levant The Social History of Achaemenid Phoenicia Vadim S. Jigoulov, 2016-04-08 Even though the Persian period has attracted a fair share of scholarly interest in recent years as yet no concerted effort has been attempted to construct a comprehensive social history of Phoenician city states as an integral part of the Achaemenid empire This monograph explores the evidence from Persian period literary both ancient Jewish and classical epigraphic and numismatic sources as well as material culture remains in order to sketch just such a history This study examines developments in Persian period Phoenician city states on the three levels that of the individual household the city state and the administrative unit of the Persian empire These three societal levels are analyzed within the contexts of economic competition between and among the Phoenician city states their burgeoning economic ties with the outside world and their interaction with the Persian imperial influence in the Levant The 3 most evil, savage and deceptive inventions in history: God, the Bible and organized religions Maximillien De Lafayette, 2016-05-22 Published by Times Square Press New York www.timessquarepress.com This book will change forever your perception of and belief in God the Bible and organized religions The arguments findings and conclusions are solely based upon the Old Testament Jewish Bible and what God Yahweh said about himself in the Bible word for word and what he did to children to the elderly to women and innocent helpless people and nations according to the Bible Old Testament and the Torah and how God Yahweh negatively influenced the nature structure and logic of the Holy Scriptures the Torah the Talmud and the Mishnah arguments and findings we are presenting to you without personal interpretation and free from biased and subjective analyses What you are about to read in this book is directly taken from the Bible Old Testament and word for word The Late Bronze and Early Iron Ages of Southern Canaan Aren M. Maeir, Itzhaq Shai, Chris McKinny, 2019-07-08 The Late Bronze Age in the Levant is a period of much interest to archaeologists historians and biblical scholars This is a period with intense international relations rich in ancient sources which provide historical data for the period and is a crucial formative period for the peoples and cultures who play central roles in the Hebrew Bible Recent archaeological research in Israel and surrounding countries has provided new exciting and in some cases groundbreaking finds interpretations and understanding of this period The fourteen papers in this volume represent the proceedings of a conference held at Bar Ilan University in 2014 with the additional of several invited papers not presented at the conference which provide both overviews of Late Bronze Age finds from several important sites in Israel and surrounding countries as well as several synthetic studies on the various issues relating to the period These papers by and large represent a broad view of cutting edge research in the archaeology of the ancient Levant in general and on the Late Bronze Age specifically
