Architecture and Nature Abilio Guerra, 2019-12-04 The first book of the collection Latin America Thoughts presents a collection of Abilio Guerra's texts that gravitate around a birthmark of modernism in Brazil. At issue is the belief found in texts, narratives and speeches from 1920-1940 in an alternative modern action where culture and nature play leading roles which, because of its discursive effectiveness, metamorphoses into real features of Brazilian modern architecture.

Architecture of Brazil Hugo Segawa, 2012-12-05 Architecture of Brazil 1900-1990 examines the processes that underpin modern Brazilian architecture under various influences and characterizes different understandings of modernity evident in the chapter topics of this book. Accordingly, the author does not give overall preference to particular architects nor works, with the exception of a few specific works and architects including Warchavchik, Niemeyer, Lucio Costa and Vilanova Artigas.

Roberto Burle Marx Lauro Cavalcanti, Farès El-Dahdah, Francis Rambert, 2011 Roberto Burle Marx, São Paulo 1909, Rio de Janeiro 1994, is known as a landscape architect but also as a painter, botanist, gardener, chef and jewellery designer. He considered the garden to be one of the fine arts as the adaptation of the biome to civilisation's natural requirements. This book introduces the realm of the full sensory experience. Burle Marx's work with plants becomes highly pictorial; everything is drawn, coloured and constructed. In this symbiosis between aesthetics and botany, Burle Marx is the master of both species and spaces. His work is the embodiment of the nature city, a concept developed from the garden cities of the late 19th century which has become compromised in the 21st century due to the compact city model. This new publication focuses on Burle Marx's scientific interest in the landscape and his relationship with the environment. Concepts that continue to be of major significance in contemporary landscape architecture, such as ecology garden as an art form and landscape design in the urban structure, are some of the subjects the book deals with. The visual information of the book is complemented by the texts by Fares El Dahdah, Francis Rambert, Jacques Leenhardt, Jose Tabacow, Lelia Coelho, Frota Andre, Correa do Lago, Dorothee Imbert, Valerie Fraser and Gilles Clement.

Participation in Art and Architecture Martino Stierli,Mechtild Widrich,2015-10-16 Does participatory art and architecture shape social reality or is it shaped by it Shifting the ground of this debate which tends to assume one or other direction of influence this innovative book explores the inherently dialectic relationship between society and the built environment At the same time it strives for a historically conscious discussion of a very contemporary issue Chapters rethink the top down model of participation and audience activation of high modernism from Alexander Dörner s
