The Difference Difference Makes Women And Leadership:

The Difference "Difference" Makes Deborah L. Rhode, 2002 Why are women so dramatically underrepresented in formal leadership positions and what can be done to improve the situation This unique collection takes up these questions in the crucial practical concepts of law politics and business the arenas in which women s leadership has the most public influence Bridging the worlds of theory and practice the essays in this collection bring new insights to long standing questions about the difference gender difference makes both in access to leadership and in its exercise The contributors to this collection represent some of the nation s most distinguished women leaders and most respected scholars on women and leadership and reflect a distinctive array of perspectives and backgrounds Among others they include former Congresswoman Patricia Schroeder former NOW president Patricia Ireland the Right Honorable Kim Campbell former prime minister of Canada and Judith Resnik the Arthur Liman Professor of Law Yale Law School Written in accessible lively prose and informed by a wealth of scholarship and personal experience this collection should appeal to a broad audience The Difference "Difference" Makes Deborah L. Rhode, 2003 Why are women so dramatically underrepresented in leadership positions in law politics and business and what can be done to improve the situation These are the questions this provocative book meets head on

Women and Leadership Jean Lau Chin, Bernice Lott, Joy Rice, Janis Sanchez-Hucles, 2008-04-15 Over the past thirty years the number of women assuming leadership roles has grown dramatically This original and important book identifies the challenges faced by women in positions of leadership and discusses the intersection between theories of leadership and feminism Examines models of feminist leadership feminist influences on leadership styles and agendas and the diversity of theoretical and ethnic perspectives of feminist leaders Addresses how diverse women lead how feminist principles contribute to leadership the influence of ethnic groups and the barriers that women face as leaders Transforms existing models of leadership by incorporating gender issues Looks to the future of feminist leadership and identifies what must be done to train and mentor the next generation of feminist leaders Handbook of Leadership Theory and Practice Nitin Nohria, Rakesh Khurana, 2010-01-26 Scores of books and articles have been written in the popular press and mainstream marketplace about leadership who leaders are what they do and why they matter Yet in academia there is a dearth of rigorous research journal articles or doctoral programs focused on leadership as a discipline Why do top business schools espouse mission statements that promise to educate the leaders of the future yet fail to give leadership its intellectual due The Handbook of Leadership Theory and Practice seeks to bridge this disconnect Based on the Harvard Business School Centennial Colloquium Leadership Advancing an Intellectual Discipline and edited by HBS professors Nitin Nohria and Rakesh Khurana this volume brings together the most important scholars from fields as diverse as psychology sociology economics and history to take stock of what we know about leadership and to set an agenda for future research More than a means of getting ahead and gaining power leadership must be understood as a serious professional and personal responsibility Featuring the thinking of today's most renowned scholars the Handbook of Leadership Theory and Practice will be a catalyst for elevating leadership to a higher intellectual plane and help shape the research agenda for the next generation of leadership scholars

Women and Leadership in Higher Education Karen A. Longman, Susan R. Madsen, 2014-09-01 Women and Leadership in Higher Education is the first volume in a new series of books Women and Leadership Research Theory and Practice that will be published in upcoming years to inform leadership scholars and practitioners This book links theory research and practice of women's leadership in various higher education contexts and offers suggestions for future leadership development strategies This volume focuses on the field of higher education particularly within the context of the United States a sector that serves a majority of students at all degree levels who are women yet lacks parity by women in senior leadership roles The book's fifteen chapters present both hard facts regarding the current demographic realities within higher education and fresh thinking about how progress can and must be made in order for U S higher education to benefit from the perspectives of women at the senior leadership table The book's opening section provides data and analysis in addressing The State of Women and Leadership in Higher Education the second section offers descriptions of three effective models for women's leadership development at the national and institutional levels the third section draws from recent research to present Women's Experiences and Contributions in Higher Education Leadership The book concludes with five shorter chapters written by current and former college and university presidents who offer Lessons from the Trenches for the benefit of those who follow In short the thesis of the book is that our world is changing higher education collectively as well as institutions of all types must change Bringing more women into leadership is critical to the goal of moving our society and world forward in healthier ways

Women and Leadership Deborah L. Rhode, 2017 Women and Leadership explores the causes and consequences of the underrepresentation of women in America's leadership roles Drawing on comprehensive research and a survey of prominent women leaders the book describes the reasons for gender inequity in leadership and identifies compelling solutions It is essential reading for anyone interested in leveling the playing field for women

Empowering Women in Higher Education and Student Affairs Penny A. Pasque, Shelley Errington Nicholson, 2023-07-03 Co published with How do we interrupt the current paradigms of sexism in the academy How do we construct a new and inclusive gender paradigm that resists the dominant values of the patriarchy And why are these agendas important not just for women but for higher education as a whole These are the questions that these extensive and rich analyses of the historical and contemporary roles of women in higher education as administrators faculty students and student affairs professionals seek constructively to answer In doing so they address the intersection of gender and women's other social identities such as of race ethnicity sexual orientation class and ability This book addresses the experiences and position of women students from application to college through graduate school and the barriers they encounter the continuing inequalities in the rates of promotion and progression of women and other marginalized groups to positions of authority and the gap in earnings between men and women and pays particular attention to how race and other social markers impact such disparities contextualizing them across all institutional types Written collaboratively by an intergenerational group of women men and transgender people with different social identities feminist perspectives and professional identities and who in the process built upon each other's work this volume constitutes a call to educators and scholars to work toward centering feminist and other marginalized perspectives in their practice and research in order to equitably address the evolving complexities of college and university life Employing a wide range of theoretical lenses examining a variety of models of practice and giving voice to a diversity of personal experiences through narrative this is a major contribution to the scholarship on women in higher education This is a book for all women in the academy who want to better understand their experience and to dismantle the remaining barriers of sexism and oppression for themselves and future generations of students An ACPA Publication

Women, Power, and Politics Lori Cox Han, Caroline Heldman, 2023-05-29 As women continue to gain more prominence as active participants in the American political and electoral process as voters candidates and officeholders it becomes even more important to understand how gender shapes political power and the distribution of resources within our society There are many areas of research in a variety of disciplines focusing on women gender and feminism and many of them intersect with a discussion of women in American politics Our goal in writing this book is to present these topics in an interesting lively and timely way through an analysis of contemporary political gender related issues We hope to have provided just enough of an historical context to get students interested in the evolution of women in American political life and enough theory and analysis to inspire them to seek more information and knowledge about gender justice today The study of women and U S politics as well as the role gender plays in the broader political context has emerged as a powerful voice within the discipline of Political Science in the last few decades As such we hope that readers find this text a useful addition to the ongoing dialogue while instructors find it to be a useful pedagogical tool for their courses on women gender and politics

Women's Leadership Journeys Sherylle J. Tan, Lisa DeFrank-Cole, 2018-07-18 This volume brings together research from leading scholars with stories from women leaders in diverse sectors to provide insights from their leadership journeys The book begins with personal stories of women's leadership journeys by chief executive officers a former U S ambassador a college president and others The stories enable readers to make sense of their own leadership journeys by learning about the varied paths to leadership and taking note of key elements such as role transitions defining moments identity development and growth mindsets Next scholars discuss novel research that can guide women in navigating their journeys to leadership including on followership competition representation of women in politics and the role of biology in leadership This must have volume offers cutting edge perspectives and a guide for women to navigate their own journeys to impactful leadership

Gender, Power and Management B. Bagilhole, K. White, 2011-05-03 Women are now part of senior management in higher education HE to varying degrees in most countries and actively contribute to the vision and strategic direction of universities This book attempts to analyse their impact and potential impact on both organisational growth and culture
