The Discourse Of Enclosure:

The Discourse of Enclosure Shari Horner, 2001-05-24 2001 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Exploring Old English texts ranging from Beowulf to Ifric's Lives of Saints this book examines ways that women's monastic material and devotional practices in Anglo Saxon England shaped literary representations of women and femininity Horner argues that these representations derive from a discourse of female monastic enclosure based on the increasingly strict rules of cloistered confinement that regulated the female religious body in the early Middle Ages She shows that the female subjects of much Old English literature are enclosed by many layers literal and figurative textual material discursive spatial all of which image and reinforce the powerful institutions imposed by the Church on the female body Though it has long been recognized that medieval religious women were enclosed and that virginity was highly valued this book is the first to consider the interrelationships of these two positions that is how the material practices of female monasticism inform the textual operations of Old English literature

Enclosure Gary Fields, 2017-09-05 Enclosure marshals bold new and persuasive arguments about the ongoing dispossession of Palestinians Revealing the Israel Palestine landscape primarily as one of enclosure geographer Gary Fields sheds fresh light on Israel's actions He places those actions in historical context in a broad analysis of power and landscapes across the modern world Examining the process of land grabbing in early modern England colonial North America and contemporary Palestine Enclosure shows how patterns of exclusion and privatization have emerged across time and geography That the same moral legal and cartographic arguments were copied by enclosers of land in very different historical environments challenges Israel's current rationale as being uniquely beleaguered It also helps readers in the United Kingdom and the United States understand the Israel Palestine conflict in the context of their own tortured histories

Enclosure Acts Richard Burt, John Archer, 2019-06-07 Enclosure the conversion of peasants commonly held lands to privately owned pasture has long been considered a critical stage in the transition from feudalism to capitalism This book is the first however to treat in detail the literary and cultural implications of enclosure in early modern England Bringing together the work of both senior and younger scholars who represent a wide range of critical orientations Enclosure Acts focuses not only on the historical fact of land enclosure but also on the symbolic containment of sexuality in Elizabethan and Jacobean literary works The first type of enclosure frequently has been treated by materialists and new historicists feminists and theorists concerned with issues of gender have tended to concentrate on the second The fourteen essays collected here explore the relationships between these two ways of perceiving enclosure in the context of cultural studies Individual chapters examine the creation of territorial and social boundaries as well as the consequences of enclosure acts

Militarizing the Environment Robert P. Marzec, 2015-12-21 As the seriousness of climate change becomes more and more obvious military institutions are responding by taking a prominent role in the governing of environmental concerns engaging in climate change war games and preparing for the effects of climate change from conflicts due to loss of food water and energy to the mass migration of millions of people displaced by rising sea levels This combat oriented stance stems from a self destructive pattern of thought that Robert P Marzec names environmentalism an attitude that has been affecting human environmental relations since the seventeenth century Militarizing the Environment traces the rise of this influential mindset in America and other nations that threatens to supplant ideas of sustainability with demands for adaptation In this extensive historical study of scientific military political and economic formations across five centuries Marzec reveals how environmentalism has been instrumental in the development of today's security society informing the creation of the military industrial complex during World War II and the National Security Act that established the CIA during the Cold War Now embedded in contemporary Western thought environmentalism has even infiltrated scientific thinking transforming Darwinian insights into a quasi theology that makes security the biological basis of existence Marzec exposes the self destructive nature of this increasingly accepted worldview and offers alternatives that counter the blind alleys of national and global security

Landscape Nicole Graham, 2010-07-07 Addressing law's relationship to land and natural resources through its property regime Landscape Property Environment Law considers the ways in which property law transforms both natural environments and social economies

An Ecological and Postcolonial Study of Literature R. Marzec, 2015-12-11 This book argues that humanity's relationship to the land has undergone a fundamental and calamitous change Marzec reveals how the historical phenomenon known as the enclosure movement has effected not only the ecosystems and the geopolitics of the Twenty First century but on how we relate to the earth and conceive of ourselves as human

The Displacement of the Body in Ælfric's Virgin Martyr Lives Alison Gulley, 2016-03-16 The Displacement of the Body in Ælfric's Virgin Martyr Lives addresses 10th century Old English hagiographical translations from Latin source material by the abbot and grammarian Ælfric The vitae of Agnes Agatha Lucy and Eugenia and the married saints Daria Basilissa and Cecilia included in Ælfric's Old English Lives of Saints recount the lives persecution and martyrdom of young women who renounce sex and in the first four stories marriage to devote their lives to Christian service They purport to be about the primacy of virginity and the role of the body in attaining sanctity However a comparison of the Latin sources with Ælfric's versions suggests that his translation style characterized by simplifying the most important meanings of the text omits certain words or entire episodes that foreground suppressed female sexuality as key to sainthood The Old English Lives de-emphasize the physical nature of faith and highlight the importance of spiritual purity In this volume Alison Gulley explores how the context of the Benedictine Reform in late Anglo Saxon England and Ælfric's commitment to writing for a lay audience resulted in a set of stories depicting a spirituality distinct from physical intactness

The English Peasantry and the Enclosure of Common Fields Gilbert Slater, 1907

The Third Gender and Ælfric's Lives of Saints Rhonda L McDaniel, 2018-03-31 In The Third Gender McDaniel addresses the idea of the third gender in early hagiography and Latin treatises on virginity and then examines Ælfric's treatment of gender in his translations of Latin monastic Lives for his non monastic audiences She first investigates patristic ideas about a third gender by describing this concept within the theoretical frameworks of monasticism and then turns to creating a historical and theological cultural context within which to locate an interpretation of Aelfric's portrayals of male and female saints

Medieval England M. W. Beresford, J. K. S. Joseph, 1979-11-15 This book discusses in detail some aspects of life in medieval England still to be seen in the landscape The perspective of the air photograph conveys a fresh understanding of the physical setting of medieval society of the interaction between communities and the land upon which they settled and of the varying pattern of the social and economic fabric of the country
