The Distancae Of A Shout - Kishwar Naheed Kishwar Nāhīd, 2001 This book is a compilation of Kishwar Naheed's poems translated by well known and established literary figures Kishwar Naheed is one of the leading poets of Pakistan who continues to write in the more traditional form of the ghazal but some of her best works as reflected through this selection have been prose poetry

Gender, Sexuality and Feminism in Pakistani Urdu Writing Amina Yaqin, 2022-03-08 In this book the author critically interrogates the construction of gender community and nation in the work of progressive women poets The book combines the study of nation and community through a close engagement with Urdu literary culture in the twentieth century and particularly the work of pioneering literary women It argues that gender and sexuality become fixed signifiers in the trauma of partition and the formation of the post partition Islamic nation The story of literary women in Pakistan taking up the mantle of public poets thus has to be understood in relation to the history of reform anti colonial resistance and a transnational Islamicate culture The book examines the presence of feminist thought in the work of progressive women poets charting their interrogation of the clash between secular and sacred values and the increasing split between liberal and Islamic nationalism The book suggests that through their writing and experiences women have negotiated sacred and secular spaces to move beyond a community that is subservient to nationalist ideology

Bodies That Remember Anita Anantharam, 2012-01-30 An engaging and informative exploration of four women poets writing in Hindi and Urdu over the course of the twentieth century in India and Pakistan Anantharam follows the authors and their works as both countries undergo profound political and social transformations The book tells of how these women forge solidarities with women from different castes classes and religions through their poetry

Understanding Pakistan Mathew Joseph C., 2016-09-13 Understanding Pakistan Emerging Voices from India is the outcome of a national seminar for research scholars on Pakistan organized by the Centre for Pakistan Studies at the MMAJ Academy of International Studies Jamia Millia Islamia New Delhi The aim of the seminar was to explore how young minds in India view Pakistan the quintessential enemy country or the other of India The range of topics included issues related to Pakistan's politics economy popular culture education environment sectarian divide minorities policy towards Jammu Kashmir and foreign relations The established academic discourse on Pakistan in India is largely dominated by concerns linked to security threats emanating from within Pakistan Due to this overemphasis on security related issues Indian scholarship on Pakistan is considered to be highly subjective and partisan However in this volume most of the young scholars distance themselves from the main thrust of Indian scholarship on Pakistan and provide a fresh perspective on Pakistan which can potentially rupture the established tradition of Indian scholarship on Pakistan Hopefully it will be these scholars who in the near future will be at the forefront of emerging scholarship on Pakistan in India
