Excerpt from The Doctrine of God In the Jewish Apocryphal and Apocalyptic Literature No attempt has been made in this work to classify the authors of the apocryphal and apocalyptic literature according to various religious sects for this cannot be done with any confidence As Dr M Gaster says The claim put up by some modern scholars to determine exactly whether a writer belonged to the Sadducees or the Pharisees rests on a very slender basis We cannot dogmatise on these questions which are thus far only postulates and lack scientific proof The various books of the literature are here discussed as far as that is possible in their chronological order It does not come within the scope of this work to attempt anything like a full treatment of questions of Introduction but it seems necessary to state briefly the reasons which have led the present writer to adopt certain critical theories as to the composition of the books under discussion and as to the dates to which they should be assigned This has accordingly been done in a short introductory chapter About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Doctrine of God in the Jewish Apocryphal and Apocalyptic Literature, Etc Henry James WICKS, 1915 Doctrine of God in the Jewish Apocryphal & Apocalyptic Literature , 1915 The Doctrine of God in
