The Domestication Of Desire Women Wealth And Modernity In Java:

The Domestication of Desire Suzanne April Brenner, 1998 While doing fieldwork in the modernizing Javanese city of Solo during the late 1980s Suzanne Brenner came upon a neighborhood that seemed like a museum of a bygone era Laweyan a once thriving production center of batik textiles had embraced modernity under Dutch colonial rule only to fend off the modernizing forces of the Indonesian state during the late twentieth century Focusing on this community Brenner examines what she calls the making of the unmodern Against the social political and economic developments of late colonial and postcolonial Java Brenner describes how an innovative commercially successful lifestyle became an anachronism in Indonesian society thereby challenging the idea that tradition invariably gives way to modernity in an evolutionary progression Brenner's analysis centers on the importance of gender to processes of social transformation

Spiritual Economies Daromir Rudnyckyj, 2011-08-15 In Europe and North America Muslims are often represented in conflict with modernity but what could be more modern than motivational programs that represent Islamic practice as conducive to business success and personal growth Daromir Rudnyckyj's innovative and surprising book challenges widespread assumptions about contemporary Islam by showing how moderate Muslims in Southeast Asia are reinterpreting Islam not to reject modernity but to create a spiritual economy consisting of practices conducive to globalization Drawing on more than two years of research in Indonesia most of which took place at state owned Krakatau Steel Rudnyckyj shows how self styled spiritual reformers seek to enhance the Islamic piety of workers across Southeast Asia and beyond Deploying vivid description and a keen ethnographic sensibility Rudnyckyj depicts a program called Emotional and Spiritual Quotient ESQ training that reconfigures Islamic practice and history to make the religion compatible with principles for corporate success found in Euro American management texts self help manuals and life coaching sessions The prophet Muhammad is represented as a model for a corporate CEO and the five pillars of Islam as directives for self discipline personal responsibility and achieving win win solutions Spiritual Economies reveals how capitalism and religion are converging in Indonesia and other parts of the developing and developed world Rudnyckyj offers an alternative to the commonly held view that religious practice serves as a refuge from or means of resistance against modernization and neoliberalism Moreover his innovative approach charts new avenues for future research on globalization religion and the predicaments of modern life

Gender, State and Social Power in Contemporary Indonesia Kate O'Shaughnessy, 2009-01-13 This book examines gender state and social power in Indonesia focusing in particular on state regulation of divorce from 1965 to 2005 and its impact on women Indonesia experienced high divorce rates in the 1950s and 1960s followed by a remarkable decline Already falling divorce rates were reinforced by the 1974 Marriage Law which for the first time regulated marriage for both Muslim and non Muslim Indonesians and restricted access to divorce This law defined the roles of men and women in Indonesian society vesting household leadership with husbands and the management of the household with wives Drawing on a wide selection of primary sources including court records legal codes newspaper reports fiction interviews and case studies this book provides a detailed historical account of this period of important social change exploring fully the impact and operation of state regulation of divorce including the New Order government's aims in enacting this legal framework its effects in practice and how it was utilised by citizens both men and women to advance their own agendas It argues that the Marriage Law was a tool of social control enacted by the New Order government in response to the social upheaval and protests experienced in the mid 1970s However it also shows that state power was not hegemonic it was both contested and co-opted by citizens with men and women enjoying different degrees of autonomy from the state This book explores all of these issues providing important insights on the nature of the New Order regime social power and gender relations both during the years of its rule and since its collapse

Moving Places Nataša Gregorič Bon, Jaka Repič, 2016-09-01 Moving Places draws together contributions from Europe Latin America Asia and Africa exploring practices and experiences of movement non movement and place making The book centers on moving places places with locations that are not fixed but relative Locations appearing to be reasonably stable such as home and homeland are in fact always subject to practices imaginaries and politics of movement Bringing together original ethnographic contributions with a clear theoretical focus this volume spans the fields of anthropology human geography migration and border studies and serves as teaching material in related programs

Gender and Power in Early Childhood Education in Indonesia Vina Adriany, 2024-08-01 Adriany explores gender discourses in early childhood education in Indonesia as well as how teachers and children are engaged in the process of constructing negotiating and resisting dominant gender discourses in kindergartens Using an ethnographic approach Adriany explores how both the teachers and children are doing and undoing their gender She adopts feminist poststructuralist and postcolonial theories through her research and in that context views gender as something fluid and unfixed The book also investigates the methodological aspect where the authors have both an inside and outside perspective Each chapter aims to present and complicate the taken for granted practices in kindergartens that relate to how gender and power are constructed The findings of this book show the extent to which early childhood education becomes a space for the teachers and children to construct negotiate as well as resist dominant gender discourses in kindergartens Offering insights into local and global contexts that shape gender values in early years this book will be a valuable reference for researchers scholars and students in early childhood education gender studies and comparative education

The Fighting Art of Pencak Silat and its Music, 2016-01-12 Fighting arts have their own beauty internal philosophy and are connected to cultural worlds in meaningful and important ways Combining approaches from ethnomusicology ethnochoreology performance theory and anthropology the distinguishing feature of this book is that it highlights the centrality of the pluripotent art form of pencak silat among Southeast Asian arts and its importance to a network of traditional and modern performing arts in Southeast Asia and beyond By doing so important layers of local concepts on performing arts ethics society spirituality and personal life conduct are demystified With a distinct change in the way we view Southeast Asia this book provides a wealth of information about a complex of performing arts related to the so called world of silat An ancillary media companion website www.bits4culture.org/pencaksilatandmusic is part of this work Login authorisation information is included in the book Contributors include Bussakorn Binson Jean Marc de Grave Gisa J hnichen Margaret Kartomi Zahara Kamal Indija Mahjoeddin Ako Mashino Paul H Mason Uwe U Paetzold Kirstin Pauka Henry Spiller and Sean Williams

Fluid Iron Tony Day, 2002-08-31 Fluid Iron is the first extended treatment of state formation in Southeast Asia from early to contemporary times and the first book length analysis of Western historical and ethnographic writing on the region It includes critical assessments of the work of Clifford Geertz O W Wolters Benedict Anderson and other major scholars who have written on early colonial and modern Southeast Asian history and culture Making use of the ideas of Weber Marx Foucault and postmodern and postcolonial theory Tony Day argues that culture must be restored to the study of Southeast Asian history so that the state and historical developments in the region can be returned to their own alternative historical contexts and trajectories He employs a wide range of contemporary scholarship as well as Southeast Asian literary and historical texts inscriptions and temples to explore the kinds of concepts and practices kinship networks cosmologies gender identities bureaucracies rituals violence and aesthetics that have been used for centuries to build states Highly readable and accessibly written Fluid Iron demonstrates that Southeast Asian state building has taken place in a part of the world that has always been a crossroads of cultural and transcultural change Day urges Southeast Asians to learn more about the history of their own state formations so they can safeguard not only human freedom but also the incongruity of their unique region in the years ahead

Gender at Work in Economic Life Gracia Clark, 2003 This new volume from SEA illuminates the importance of gender as a frame of reference in the study of economic life The contributors are economic anthropologists who consider the role of gender and work in a cross cultural context examining issues of historical change the construction of globalization household authority and entitlement and entrepreneurship and autonomy The book will be a valuable resource for researchers in anthropology and in the related fields of economics sociology of work gender studies women s studies and economic development Published in cooperation with the Society for Economic Anthropology Visit their web page

Face-veiled Women in Contemporary Indonesia Eva F. Nisa, 2022-09-21 Face veiling is relatively new in Indonesia It is often stereotyped as a sign of extremism and the growing Arabisation of Indonesian Muslims It is also perceived as a symbol that demonstrates a lack of female agency However increasing numbers of women are choosing to wear the cadar the full face veil This book provides an ethnographic study of these women why they choose to wear the cadar embody strict religious disciplinary practices and the consequences of that choice The women in this book belong to two Islamic revivalist movements various Salafi groups and the Tablighi Jamaat In Indonesia has constantly witnessed transformations in the meanings and practices of Islam and this book demonstrates that women are key actors in this process Nisa demonstrates that contrary to stereotypes the women in this study have an agency which is expressed through their chosen docility and obedience

Culture and Political Psychology Thalia Magioglou, 2014-03-01 This book is perhaps the first systematic treatment of politics from the perspective of cultural psychology Politics is a complex that psychology usually fails to understand as it assumes a position in society that attempts to be free of politics itself Politics is associated both with an everyday practice and the dynamics of globalization with the way group conflicts ideologies social representations and identities are lived and co constructed by social actors The authors of the book address these issues through their research grounded in different parts of the world on democracy and political order the social representation of power gender studies the use of metaphors and symbolic power in political discourse social identities and methodological questions The book will be used by social and political psychologists but is also of interest to the other social sciences political scientists sociologists anthropologists educationalists and it is at a level where sophisticated lay public would be able to appreciate its coverage Its use in upperlevel college teaching is possible and expected at graduate postgraduate levels
