Ronald Frederick Delderfield, 1964 The experience of suburban modernity Michael John Law, 2014-12-01 The experience of suburban modernity looks at the history of the London suburbs in the interwar years It shows that contrary to those accounts that portray suburbia as static and boring these suburbs were in fact at the heart of the adoption of private transport and new mobilities Wealthier middle class suburbanites enjoyed driving at speed on new arterial roads visiting roadhouses for a transgressive night out taking five shilling flights from the local airport and joining cycling and motorcycle clubs All this fun came at a price for some in the form of thousands of deaths in road accidents plane crashes on suburban housing and in the despoiling of the countryside through road development This book will be welcomed by academics and students working in suburban studies historical geography and interwar British history and can also be enjoyed by anyone interested in the history of London Lower-Middle-Class Nation Nicola Bishop, 2020-12-10 Lower Middle Class Nation provides an unparalleled interdisciplinary cultural history of the lower middle class worker in British life since 1850 Considering highbrow lowbrow and middle brow forms across literature film television and more Nicola Bishop traces the development of the lower middle class from the mid 19th century to the present day tackling a number of pressing consistent concerns such as automation commuting and the search for a life work balance Above all this book brings together ideas about class nationhood and gender demonstrating that a particularly British lower middle class identity is constructed through the spaces and practices of the everyday Aimed at undergraduate postgraduates and scholars working in media and social history literature popular culture cultural studies and sociology Lower Middle Class Nation represents a new direction in cultural histories of work labour and leisure Something to Crowe About E.W. NICKERSON,2013-09-05 When the British and Canadian governments want the people of the world particularly France to be reminded of the French Vichy governments involvement and active participation in the Final Solution during World War 2 a simple plan of communication turns into dangers never anticipated Special consultant to MI6 Ed Crowe along with his special friend and CSIS operative Pat W spend their August 1985 honeymoon in Paris in order to communicate the details of the Vichys proactive involvement The success of the plan leads to international headlines and the identification of neo Nazi groups in both France and Britain including their importation of illegal drugs into Britain The ensuing activity results in the reluctant involvement of Scotland Yard and the enthusiastic involvement of the CIA While the work is dangerous and deadly it only serves to deepen the love between Ed Crowe and Carolyn Andrews daughter of Lord Stonebridge the head of the British Secret Service MI6
