The Duty and the Discipline of Extemporary Preaching (Classic Reprint) F. Barham Zincke,2018-01-19 Excerpt from The Duty and the Discipline of Extemporary Preaching I take this opportunity to say that in the Notes and Studies of Sermons which form the latter part of the volume I had but one object in view that of illustrating in some particulars my previous remarks on Preaching In selecting the Sermons that seemed suitable for this purpose from those I preached during the time I was engaged in writing the first part of the book I passed by all that were of a purely doctrinal character because I shrank from dissecting and from regarding in a rhetorical light the treatment of the most sacred of all subjects Many are asking how the efficiency of the Church may be so increased as to enable her to meet the peculiar and pressing difficulties of the times No one would think of limiting the reply to any single measure or recommendation The following pages endeavor to direct attention to what I would beg per mission to call a more instructed and if so then a more fruitful use of the oldest and most necessary of all the means that have been committed to the Church for enabling her to propagate the Faith About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and
