The Growth Of The British Cotton Trade 1780 1815:

The Growth of the British Cotton Trade, 1780-1815 Michael M. Edwards, 1967 International Competition and Strategic Response in the Textile Industries Since 1870 Mary B. Rose, 2013-11-05 This book of essays which draws on the expertise of leading textile scholars in Britain and the United States focuses on the problem of and responses to foreign competition in textiles from the late nineteenth century to the present day A short introductory essay by the editor is followed by a survey of the debates surrounding the British cotton industry foreign competition and competitive advantage The other essays consider various aspects of that competition including textile machine making Lancashire perceptions of the rise of Japan during the inter war period and responses to foreign competition in the British cotton industry since 1945 whilst others deal with the decline and rise of merchanting in UK textiles and European competition in woollen yarn and cloth from 1870 to 1914 A recurring theme in a number of the essays is Japanese competitive advantage in textiles The book is unique since although there are numerous books dealing with the problems of British staple industries none focuses primarily on the issue of competition its sources and responses nor on textiles in general rather than a single industry Moreover since the scope is international rather than limited only to the UK it follows recent trends in British business history away from single company case studies towards a more thematic comparative approach In addition the international authorship of these papers gives this book first published in 1991 wide appeal

Using Computers in History M.J. Lewis, Roger Lloyd-Jones, 2005-11-23 Using Computers in History is designed to introduce students to historical computing through practical workshop exercises With topics such as the pattern of nineteenth century emigration from the UK the performance of the American and German economies in the 1930s and the Lancashire cotton industry Lloyd Jones and Lewis explain and illustrate the possible uses of the computer for the historian Using Computers in History raises awareness of the use of computers as an important tool for the historian provides a practical introduction to basic computer terminology includes high quality diagrams of the screen displays which should appear at each stage examines the use of spreadsheets and how to design and work with them discusses the different software packages available concentrating on Microsoft Excel 4 includes spreadsheet exercises based around a range of historical data sets explores the use of databases shows how to construct them gives guidelines for further study prompts students to apply the skills they have learnt to a number of examples

The Built Environment

Transformed Geoffrey Timmins, 2021-12-02 This book is concerned with the remarkable changes made to the built environment in Lancashire's main textile district essentially the eastern and central parts of the county during the Industrial Revolution c1780 c1850 A case study approach is taken with findings from investigations at six different types of site being presented The sites included are water powered mill remains in the Cheesden Valley near Rochdale Barrow Bridge factory village near Bolton the former handloom weavers colony at Club Houses Horwich Preston's Winckley Square Eanam Wharf at Blackburn and to the north of Bolton the road between Bromley Cross and Edgworth The case studies show how in rural and urban areas alike developments in industry housing and transport greatly extended the built environment and brought striking new features to it Emphasis is placed on interpreting the physical evidence the sites provide linking it with that taken from various types of documentary source especially historical maps By making comparisons with developments occurring at similar types of site elsewhere in Britain as well as in Europe and North America the forms the changes took are explained and their significance assessed Additionally insights are provided into the economic and social impact the changes brought especially on the everyday lives that people led The Spinning World Giorgio Riello, Prasanna Parthasarathi, 2011-09-22 This collection of essays examines the history of cotton textiles at a global level over the period 1200 1850 It provides new answers to two questions what is it about cotton that made it the paradigmatic first global commodity And second why did cotton industries in different parts of the world follow different paths of development

Bankruptcy and Insolvency in London During the Industrial Revolution Ian P. H. Duffy, 2017-05-18 This title first published in 1985 examines the evolution of the laws relating to debt and credit during the industrial revolution Since economic activity was so precarious during the industrial revolution it is important to explore the legal procedures designed to deal with its victims This work examines two aspects of financial collapse during the industrial revolution the legal and institutional framework which defined and regulated it and bankruptcy itself This title will be of interest to students of history law and economics

The Rise of Free Trade Cheryl Schonhardt-Bailey, 1997 Why was Britain the first country to opt for unilateral free trade 150 years ago On 16 May 1846 the House of Commons voted to abolish tariff protection for agriculture the famous repeal of the Corn Laws Britain then adhered to her free trade policy despite both her relative economic decline and the protectionist policies of her leading trade rivals the USA and Germany This four volume set examines and explains the contentious issues surrounding the policy shift to free trade and the subsequent persistence of that policy This set provides a comprehensive collection of articles including previously unpublished material on nineteenth century British trade policy and a new and comprehensive introduction by the editor putting the material into context

Making Sense of the Industrial Revolution Steven King, Geoffrey Timmins, 2001-07-06 This comprehensive and innovative book on the Industrial Revolution uses carefully chosen case studies illustrated with extracts from contemporary documents to offer new perspectives on the process and impact of industrialization The authors look at the development of economic structures the financing of the Industrial Revolution technological advances markets and demand and agricultural progress The book also deals with changes in demography the household families and the built environment Routledge Library Editions: Industrial Revolution Various Authors, 2021-03-11 The volumes in this set originally published between 1967 and 1997 draw together research by leading academics in the area of the industrial revolution and provides an examination of related key issues The volumes examine urban workers and the working class in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries economic growth during the industrial revolution and the causes of the industrial revolution with a primary focus on England
