the journey of Count Raymond IV of Toulouse also called the count of St Gilles which makes it a useful counterpart to the anonymously written Gesta Francorum another eyewitness account that focuses on the Italian Normans that followed Bohemond Raymond became the count of St Gilles chaplain during the crusade and through that proximity to one of the crusade's leaders Raymond's account offers a ringside seat to the leadership dynamics of the crusade Furthermore his deliberate focus on the contingent from Provence provides insight into their social dynamics and the concerns of some of the common people which is a rarity among medieval narratives This new translation is the first to be based on the critical edition of the Latin text produced by John France and is intended primarily for the benefit of undergraduates and to make Raymond more accessible in the classroom It especially aims to improve access to the text for students who until this translation have found it difficult to read the text in full and uninterrupted
