speaking world in the 19th and 20th centuries She reveals nostalgia and madness as the tropes through which the Arabic novel writes its own story of grappling with and resisting the hegemony of both the state and cultural heritage Catalogue of the Arabic Manuscripts in the Library of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences Kinga Dévényi, Munif Abdul-Fattah, Katalin Fiedler, 2015-10-27 The Library of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences established in 1826 houses many small and still hidden collections One of these the most comprehensive Hungarian collection of Arabic manuscripts is brought to light by the present catalogue These codices are described for the first time in a detailed and systematic way A substantial part of the manuscripts is either dated to or preserved from the 150 year period of Ottoman occupation in Hungary The highlights of the collection are from the Mamluk era and the manuscripts as a whole present a clear picture of the curriculum of Islamic education The descriptions also give an overview of the many additional Turkish and Persian texts thereby adding to our knowledge about the history of these volumes Oriental Tales: Tales from the Arabic ... done into English by John Payne, 1901 The ^AArabic Hermes Kevin van Bladel, 2009-08-26 This is the first major study devoted to the early Arabic reception and adaptation of the figure of Hermes Trismegistus the legendary Egyptian sage to whom were ascribed numerous works on astrology alchemy talismans medicine and philosophy A Catalogue of the Arabic Manuscripts in the Library of the India Office Otto Loth, 1877 From the Arab Other to the Israeli Self Yonatan Mendel, Ronald Ranta, 2016-04-14 This book examines the role played by Arab Palestinian culture and people in the construction and reproduction of Israeli national identity and culture showing that it is impossible to understand modern Israeli national identity and culture without taking into account its crucial encounter and dialectical relationship with the Arab Palestinian indigenous Other Based on extensive and original primary sources including archival research memoirs advertisements cookbooks and a variety of cultural products from songs to dance steps From the Arab Other to the Israeli Self sheds light on an important cultural and ideational diffusion that has occurred between the Zionist settlers and later the Jewish Israeli population and the indigenous Arab Palestinian people in Historical Palestine By examining Israeli food culture national symbols the Modern Hebrew language spoken in Israel and culture the authors trace the journey of Israeli national identity and culture in which Arab Palestinian culture has been imitated adapted and celebrated but strikingly also rejected forgotten and denied Innovative in approach and richly illustrated with empirical material this book will appeal to sociologists anthropologists historians and scholars of cultural and Middle Eastern studies with interests in the development and adaptation of culture national thought and identity Arab-Iranian Relations Since the Arab Uprisings Mahjoob Zweiri, 2023-09-01 Unlike most writing on Arab Iran relations which looks at specific episodes and specific countries this book taking a long term view assesses the overall dynamics of the relationship discussing in particular how far religion or politics drives the relationship It argues that although Iran asserts that religion is a key factor underpinning a coherent approach to international relations in fact what turns out to be the key factor is the politics of particular circumstances and

Iran's specific interests The book considers Iran's differing reactions to the Arab uprisings of 2011 onwards showing that while Iran supported the uprisings in some countries it sided with repressive governments in other countries The book also examines Iran's reaction to its own outbreak of popular discontent in 2009 which was controlled by what has been considered as severe repression and explores how Iran is viewed by ordinary people in different Arab countries Chapter 1 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Muslims beyond the Arab World Fallou Ngom, 2016-06-01 Muslims beyond the Arab World explores the vibrant tradition of writing African languages using the modified Arabic script Ajami alongside the rise of the Muridiyya Sufi order in Senegal The book demonstrates how the development of the Ajami literary tradition is entwined with the flourishing of the Muridiyya into one of sub-Saharan Africa's most powerful and dynamic Sufi organizations It offers a close reading of the rich hagiographic and didactic written, recited and chanted Ajami texts of the Muridiyya works largely unknown to scholars The texts describe the life and Sufi odyssey of the order's founder Shaykh Ahmadu Bamba Mbakke 1853-1927 his conflicts with local rulers and Muslim clerics and the French colonial administration and the traditions and teachings he championed that permanently shaped the identity and behaviors of his followers Fallou Ngom evaluates prevailing representations of the Muridiyya movement and offers alternative perspectives He demonstrates how the Murids used their written, recited and chanted Ajami materials as an effective mass communication tool in conveying to the masses Bamba's poignant odyssey, doctrine, the virtues he stood for and cultivated among his followers, self-esteem, self-reliance, strong faith, work ethic, pursuit of excellence, determination, nonviolence and optimism in the face of adversity without the knowledge of the French colonial administration and many academics Muslims beyond the Arab World argues that this is the source of the resilience, appeal and expansion of Muridiyya which has fascinated observers since its inception in 1883

Language Education Policy: The Arab Minority in Israel M. Amara, 2002-05-31 The Israeli reality points to a number of deep divisions among the population such as between Sephardi

Ashkenazi Orthodox secular men women Arab Jew most of which in our opinion are progressively decreasing as time passes The Arab Jewish divide is the deepest of all and there is still no solution In spite of its intensity it did not enjoy a centrality whether in public debates or in academia This subject has only come on the agenda after sharp tensions between Arabs and Jews In this book we will explore in more detail some aspects of the Arab Jewish divide which raise fundamental questions regarding the place of the Arabs and Arab language education in the Jewish State More specifically the aim of this book is to describe and analyze language education in the Arab society in Israel from the establishment of the state in 1948 until today For this purpose internal processes which are embedded within the Arab population itself were examined such as the socio economic condition of the population the diglossic situation in the Arabic language and the wide use of Hebrew among Arabic speakers Furthermore the book also deals with external processes such as the policy of control and inspection of the Ministry of Education over the Arab education system in general and on language education in particular the dominance of Hebrew and the definition and perception of Israel as a Jewish State The influence of both internal and external processes on language education and learning achievements will also be extensively discussed A comprehensive examination was made of Arabic Hebrew and English as well as the teaching of French in a number of community schools The target group for this book are people who are concerned with sociolinguistics language education and language policy and planning This book will be also of special interest to Arab language teachers and policy makers in Israel

The Arabic Language Today A.F.L. Beeston, 2016-10-04 This book first published in 1970 provides a description of the standard Arabic language used today as the universal means of written communication throughout the Arab world and in formal spoken communication vernaculars differ both from each other and from the standard language The principal emphasis is on syntax and morphology of which there exists no comprehensive account Phonology and lexicon are treated briefly and there is a chapter on the script

Nazi Propaganda for the Arab World Jeffrey Herf, 2009-11-30 Jeffrey Herf a leading scholar in the field offers the most extensive examination to date of Nazi propaganda activities targeting Arabs and Muslims in the Middle East during World War II and the Holocaust He draws extensively on previously unused and little known archival resources including the shocking transcriptions of the Axis Broadcasts in Arabic radio programs which convey a strongly anti Semitic message Herf explores the intellectual political and cultural context in which German and European radical anti Semitism was found to resonate with similar views rooted in a selective appropriation of the traditions of Islam Pro Nazi Arab exiles in wartime Berlin including Haj el Husseini and Rashid el Kilani collaborated with the Nazis in constructing their Middle East propaganda campaign By integrating the political and military history of the war in the Middle East with the intellectual and cultural dimensions of the propagandistic diffusion of Nazi ideology Herf offers the most thorough examination to date of this important chapter in the history of World War II Importantly he also shows how the anti Semitism promoted by the Nazi propaganda effort contributed to the anti Semitism exhibited by adherents of radical forms of Islam in the Middle East today

The Arab Shakespeare Trilogy Sulayman Al Bassam, 2014-09-25 Sulayman Al Bassam is one of the world's leading contemporary dramatists. His adaptations of Shakespeare performed around the world have won many awards and met with widespread acclaim on four continents. This volume brings together for the first time three of Al Bassam's adaptations of Shakespearean plays including versions of Hamlet, Richard III and Twelfth Night collectively known as The Arab Shakespeare Trilogy. The Al Hamlet Summit sees the familiar characters of Hamlet reborn as delegates placed in a conference room in an unnamed modern Arab state on the brink of war. Richard III an Arab Tragedy is a contemporary adaptation of Shakespeare's classic reworked and transplanted into the scorching oil-rich Islamic world of the Gulf while The Speaker's Progress is a forensic reconstruction of Twelfth Night which transforms into an unequivocal act of defiance towards the state forming a dark satire on the decades of hopelessness and political inertia that fed twenty-first century revolts across the Arab region. The Arab Shakespeare Trilogy features an editorial introduction by Graham Holderness positioning the plays within the contexts of both modern Shakespearean drama and Arab culture as well as an author's preface by Sulayman Al Bassam detailing the plays' history of theatrical reception and outlining his philosophy of Shakespeare adaptation.

Unmaking of the Arab Intellectual Zeina Halabi, 2017-05-18 In this book Zeina G Halabi examines the figure of the intellectual as prophet, national icon and exile in contemporary Arabic literature and film. Staging a comparative dialogue with writers and critics such as Elias Khoury, Edward Said, Jurji Zaidan and Mahmoud Darwish, Halabi focuses on new articulations of loss, displacement and memory in works by Rabee Jaber, Elia Suleiman, Rawi Hage, Rashid al Daif and Seba al Herz. She argues that the ambivalence and disillusionment with the role of the intellectual in contemporary representations operate as a productive reclaiming of the political in an allegedly apolitical context. The Unmaking of the Arab Intellectual offers the critical tools to understand the evolving relations between the intellectual and power and the author and the text in the hitherto uncharted contemporary era.

Aristotle and the Arabic Tradition Ahmed Alwishah, Josh Hayes, 2015-09-17 Examines Aristotle's vast influence upon the medieval Arabic philosophical tradition and includes contributions from every discipline within his corpus.
