The Architecture Of Museums:

The Architecture of Museums Francisco Asensio Cerver, 1997 A fascinating look at how stellar cultural meccas built recently by renowned architects are setting superb standards for the next century 350 color and 60 b w illustrations The Architecture of the Museum Michaela Giebelhausen, 2003-11-08 From the Louvre to the Bilbao Guggenheim and Tate Modern the museum has had a long standing relationship with the city Examination of the meaning of museum architecture in the urban environment considering issues such as forms of civic representation urban regeneration cultural tourism and the museumification of the city itself Ranging from the seventeenth century to the present day case studies are drawn from Europe South America and Australia Contributions written by J Birksted V Fraser H Lewi D J Meijers and others Museum Architecture Justin Henderson, 1998 Museums Giulia Camin, 2007 As the guardians of the world s artistic heritage museums have always played an important role in our culture However the buildings themselves are sometimes superb masterpieces and splendid examples of a vast array of styles From the controversial Louvre Pyramid to the stylistic elegance of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York this sophisticated work offers an overview of the architecture of the world s most famous museums Giulia Camin the author has written a superb history of museums accompanied by architectural plans detailed drawings and photographs of the interiors and facades The visual images are interspersed with information about the architects and engineers who played a key role in the design and construction of these important buildings The book focuses on a selection of museums scattered all over the world including the Uffizi Gallery in Florence the Prado in Madrid the Hermitage in Saint Petersburg and the huge Smithsonian Complex in Washington DC The volume takes the reader on a tour of several modern masterpieces such as the Jewish Museum in Berlin designed by Daniel Libeskind and the Guggenheim Museum of Bilbao by Frank Gehry considered by many to be the most important museum building of the 20th century The photographs commissioned specially for the book show the innovative design of the interior of the Yad Vashem Museum in Jerusalem where the different heights of the ceilings and varying intensity of the lighting of the mainly underground galleries create the ideal atmosphere for recalling the Holocaust The Oceanographic Museum of Monaco in contrast stands almost 1000 feet above sea level and is topped by a first class restaurant that offers panoramic views over the principality and the coast This book is an essential resource for students of architecture professional architects and culture loving travelers eager to visit some of the most famous museums in the world 686 colour photographs Museum Space Kali Tzortzi, 2016-03-09 Museums are among the iconic buildings of the twenty first century as remarkable for their architectural diversity as for the variety of collections they display But how does the architecture of museums affect our experience as visitors This book proposes that by seeing space as common ground between architecture and museology and so between the museum building and its display we can illuminate the individuality of each museum and the distinctive experience it offers for example how some museums create a sense of personal exploration while others are more intensely didactic and how the visit in some cases is transformed into a spatial experience and in other cases into a more social event The book starts with an overview of the history of museum buildings and display strategies and a discussion of theoretical and critical approaches It then focuses on specific museums as in depth case studies and uses methods of spatial analysis to look at the key design choices available to architects and curators and their effects on visitors behaviour Theoretically grounded methodologically original and richly illustrated this book will equip students researchers and professionals in the fields of architecture museum studies curating exhibition design and cultural studies with a guide for studying museums and a theoretical framework for their interpretation

The Architecture of Art Museums Ronnie Self, 2014-04-16 As a building type art museums are unparalleled for the opportunities they provide for architectural investigation and experimentation They are frequently key components of urban revitalization and often push the limits of building technology Art museums are places of pleasure education and contemplation They are remarkable by their prominence and sheer quantity and their lessons are useful for all architects and for all building types This book provides explicit and comprehensive coverage of the most important museums built in the first ten years of the 21st Century in the United States and Europe By dissecting and analyzing each case Ronnie Self allows the reader to get under the skin of each design and fully understand the process behind these remarkable buildings Richly designed with full technical illustrations and sections the book includes the work of Tadao Ando Zaha Hadid Peter Cook Colin Fournier Renzo Piano Yoshi Taniguchi Herzog de Meuron Jean Nouvel SANAA Daniel Libeskind Diller Scofidio Renfro Steven Holl Coop Himmelblau Bernard Tschumi Sauerbruch Hutton and Shigeru Ban Jean de Gastines Together these diverse projects provide a catalogue of design solutions for the contemporary museum and a snapshot of current architectural thought and culture One of few books on this subject written by an architect Self's analysis thoroughly and critically appraises each project from multiple aspects and crucially takes the reader from concept to building This is an essential book for any professional engaged in designing a museum Museum Buildings Paul v Naredi-Rainer, Oliver Hilger, 2004

Museums are architectural trend setters Culture sponsoring and their increasing role as tourist attractions are guarantees for an ongoing boom in museum construction A tradition and typology developed over the centuries the experience gained in recent decades and cutting edge technology all contribute to the practice of modern day museum building History and form site development floor plan air conditioning and climate technology are just some examples of the subjects treated systematically in the first section of this design manual Some 70 international museum case studies exemplify solutions and emphasize specific museum design issues such as spatial organisation and arrangement and lighting Paul von Naredi Rainer is an expert on the subject of museum construction and author of the widely read Architektur und Harmonie Architecture and Harmony Herbert Pfeiffer Helmut F O M 1 4ller and Hans J 1 4rgen Schmitz teach at Dortmund University Oliver Hilger and Gerhard Kahlert at RWTH Aachen Museum Architecture Suzanne MacLeod, 2013-04-12 Recent decades have witnessed an explosion of museum building around the world and the subsequent publication of multiple texts dedicated to the subject

Museum Architecture A new biography focuses on the stories we tell of museum buildings in order to explore the nature of museum architecture and the problems of architectural history when applied to the museum and gallery Starting from a discussion of the key issues in contemporary museum design the book explores the role of architectural history in the prioritisation of specific stories of museum building and museum architects and the exclusion of other actors from the history of museum making These omissions have contemporary relevance and impact directly on the ways in which the physical structures of museums are shaped Theoretically the book places a particular emphasis on the work of Pierre Bourdieu and Henri Lefebvre in order to establish an understanding of buildings as social relations the outcome of complex human interactions and relationships The book utilises a micro history an in depth case study of the National Gallery of the North the Walker Art Gallery in Liverpool to expose the myriad ways in which museum architecture is made Coupled with this detailed exploration is an emphasis on contemporary museum design which utilises the understanding of the social realities of museum making to explore ideas for a socially sustainable museum architecture fit for the twenty first century

Nature's Museums Carla Yanni, 2005-09-09 Yanni art history Rutgers U examines the relationship between architecture and science in the 19th century by considering the physical placement and display of natural artifacts in Victorian natural history museums She begins by discussing the problem of classification the social history of collecting as well as architectural competitions and

American Art Museum Architecture Eric M Wolf, 2010-07-13 Exploring the intersections of art architecture and design at both renowned institutions and cutting edge contemporary collections Museum interior spaces must be as carefully designed as their facades if not more so to meet the needs of both the art on display and the viewers The design and construction of art museums in America thus is a complex process and one rarely undertaken lightly The architect must design a building that effectively supports the art exhibited The museumgoers interaction with the art must be enhanced by the architecture while amenities such as restaurants cafes gift shops and accessible and convenient restrooms ensure their comfort Finally the storage of works of art not on display must be accounted for in the building design American Art Museum Architecture Documents and Design explores all aspects of and approaches to museum architecture the aesthetic the practical the innovative and the functional Architectural historian Eric M Wolf delves into the archives of some of the country's premier institutions not only to explore the design decisions made at their founding but also to understand how those institutions have continued to evolve along with their collections up to the present day Wolf examines the gradual development of six major museums the Frick Collection the Museum of Modern Art and the Whitney Museum of American Art in New York the Menil Collection in Houston the Georgia O'Keefe Museum in Santa Fe and the Art Institute of Chicago He explains how each museum was originally conceived how the architecture reflected or modified that original conception and how the buildings have been reconsidered or revised in later years as the nature of art display and museum going has evolved Extensive archival plans documents and photographs enhance the narrative American Art Museum Architecture also considers the unique architectural challenges often posed by contemporary art Conceptual art video installations and large scale pieces are increasingly found in permanent collections at small galleries and encyclopedic institutions alike Museums built decades ago may have to renovate in order to accommodate such pieces while newer museums devoted to contemporary work must tackle new architectural challenges when considering how best to house this work Encompassing both grand nineteenth century institutions and avant garde contemporary art collections American Art Museum Architecture is a timely and fascinating exploration of the ever changing relationship between architecture and art

Reshaping Museum Space Suzanne Macleod, 2005-10-09 Reshaping Museum Space pulls together the views of an international group of museum professionals architects designers and academics highlights the complexity significance and malleability of museum space and provides reflections upon recent developments in museum architecture and exhibition design Various chapters concentrate on the process of architectural and spatial reshaping and the problems of navigating the often contradictory agendas and aspirations of the broad range of professionals and stakeholders involved in any new project Contributors review recent new build expansion and exhibition projects questioning the types of museum space required at the beginning of the twenty first century and highlighting a range of possibilities for creative museum design Essential reading for anyone involved in creating designing and project managing the development of museum exhibits and vital reading for students of the discipline
