Lord Gnome's Literary Companion Francis Wheen, 1994 His review has got to be in by midday tomorrow at about 9 pm; his mind will grow relatively clear and until the small hours he will sit skipping expertly through one book after another and laying each one down with the comment: God, what tripe. Then suddenly he will snap into it. All the stale old phrases, a book that no one should miss something memorable on every page, jump into their places like iron filings obeying the magnet. Thus did George Orwell, writing forty years ago in Confessions of a Book Reviewer, describe the labours of a typical literary hack. Precious little has changed over the intervening decades: the servility of the satirical magazine Private Eye, Lord Gnome's Literary Companion.
