The Awakener Helen Weaver, 2014-01-05 The Awakener is Helen Weaver's long-awaited memoir of her adventures with Jack Kerouac Allen Ginsberg Lenny Bruce and other wild characters from the New York City of the fifties and sixties The sheltered but rebellious daughter of bookish Midwestern parents Weaver survived a repressive upbringing in the wealthy suburbs of Scarsdale and an early divorce to land in Greenwich Village just in time for the birth of rock n roll and the counterculture movement known as the Beat Generation Shortly after her arrival Kerouac Ginsberg and company old friends of her roommate arrive on their doorstep after a non-stop drive from Mexico Weaver and Kerouac fall in love on sight and Kerouac moves in Weaver paints a romantic picture of Greenwich Village in the 1950s and 60s when she worked in publishing and hung out with Allen Ginsberg and the poet Richard Howard and was wild and loose getting high and falling into bed almost immediately with her crushes including Lenny Bruce Her descriptions of the Village are evocative recalling a time when she wore long skirts Capezio ballet shoes and black stockings and used to sit in the Bagatelle and have sweet vermouth on the rocks with a twist of lemon Early on she quotes Pasternak You in others this is your soul Kerouac's soul lives on through many people Joyce Johnson for one but few have been as adept as Weaver at capturing both him and the New York bohemia of the time He was lucky to have met her Tara McKelvey The New York Times Book Review There is a tendency for memoirs written by women about The Great Man to be self abnegating exercises in a kind of inverted narcissism the author seeking to prove her worth as muse as consort as chosen one Not so with Helen Weaver s beautiful plainspoken elegy for her time spent with Jack Kerouac who suddenly appeared at her door in the West Village one white frosty morning with Allen Ginsberg who knew Weaver s roommate in tow New York Post Helen Weaver s book was a revelation to me This is the most graphic honest shameless and moving documentary of what the newly liberated women in cities got up to how they lived loved and created Who knew It is time they did And here s how Carolyn Cassady Weaver recreates the excitement of a time when things were radically changing and shows us what it was like living with an eccentric genius at the turning point of his life Eventually she asks Jack to leave but they remain friends and over the years her respect for his writing grows even as Kerouac s reputation undergoes a gradual transition from enfant terrible to American icon She comes to realize that by writing On the Road he woke America up along with her from the long dream of the fifties And the Buddhist philosophy that once struck her as Jack s excuse for doing whatever he liked because nothing is real it s all a dream eventually becomes her own Helen Weaver s memoir is a riveting account of her love affair and friendship with Jack Kerouac She is both clear eyed and passionate about him and writes with truly amazing grace Ann Charters Helen Weaver has translated over fifty books from the French of which one Antonin Artaud Selected Writings Farrar Straus and Giroux was a Finalist for the National Book Award in translation in 1976 She is co author and general editor of the Larousse Encyclopedia of Astrology and author of The Daisy Sutra a book on animal communication She lives in Kingston New York

This Living Hand Edmund Morris, 2012-10-23 When the multitasking biographer Edmund Morris who writes with equal virtuosity about Theodore Roosevelt Ronald Reagan Beethoven and Thomas Edison was a schoolboy in colonial Kenya one of his teachers told him You have the most precious gift of all originality That quality is abundantly evident in this selection of essays They cover forty years in the life of a maverick intellectual who can be at whim astonishingly provocative self mockingly funny and richly anecdotal The title essay a tribute to Reagan in cognitive decline is poignant in the extreme Whether Morris is analyzing images of Barack Obama or the prose style of President Clinton or exploring the riches of the New York Public Library Dance Collection or interviewing the novelist Nadine Gordimer or proposing a hilarious Diet for the Musically Obese a continuous cross fertilization is going on in his mind It mixes the cultural pollens of Africa Britain and the United States and propagates hybrid flowers some fragrant some strange some a shock to conventional sensibilities Repeatedly in This Living Hand Morris celebrates the physicality of artistic labor and laments the glass screen that today s e devices interpose between inspiration and execution No presidential biographer has ever had so literary a take on his subjects he discerns powers of poetic perception even in the obsessively scientific Edison Nor do most writers on music have the verbal facility to articulate as Morris does what it is about certain sounds that soothe the savage breast His essay on the pathology of Beethoven s deafness breaks new ground in suggesting that tinnitus may explain some of the weird aural effects in that composer s works Masterly monographs on the art of biography South Africa in the last days of apartheid the romance of the piano and the role of imagination in nonfiction are juxtaposed with enchanting almost unclassifiable pieces such as The Bumstitch Lament for a Forgotten Fruit Morris suspects it may have grown in the Garden of Eden The Anticapitalist Conspiracy A Warning an assault on The Chicago Manual of Style Nuages Gris Colors in Music Literature and Art and the uproarious Which Way Does Sir Dress about ordering a suit from the most expensive tailor in London Uniquely illustrated with images that the author describes as indispensable to his creative process This Living Hand is packed with biographical insights into such famous personalities as Daniel Defoe Henry Adams Mark Twain Evelyn Waugh Truman Capote Glenn Gould Jasper Johns W G Sebald and Winnie the Pooh not to mention a gallery of forgotten figures whom Morris lovingly restores to life Among these are the pianist Ferruccio Busoni the poet Edwin Arlington Robinson the novelist James Gould Cozzens and sixteen so called Undistinguished Americans contributors to an anthology of anonymous memoirs published in 1902 Reviewing that book for The New Yorker Morris notes that even the most unlettered persons have on occasion power to send forth surprise flashes illuminating not only the dark around them but also more sophisticated shadows for example those cast by public figures who will not admit to private failings or by philosophers too cerebral to state a plain truth The author of This Living Hand is not an ordinary person but he too sends forth surprise flashes never more dazzlingly than in his final essay The Ivo Pogorelich of Presidential Biography
