

A young man and woman are sitting on a stone ledge. The woman, on the left, has long brown hair in a braid and is wearing a blue sweater and grey pants. She is looking off to the side with a serious expression. The man, on the right, has dark hair and is wearing a light blue button-down shirt over a white turtleneck and dark jeans. He is also looking off to the side, away from the woman, with a serious expression. The background is a blurred indoor setting with a plant visible.

Igbogidi, 2019-12-09 Bible Wives and Women Who Where They By Geoffrey O Igbogidi Bible Wives and Women Who Where They is a triumph written with tremendous creative charm and blended with inspired understanding of the wives and women within the Bible Their stories have received less attention in the Pulpits placed behind their male counterparts for reasons unknown or unfounded The content within this book intends to carry to the world the quest to show the purpose of the wives and women as revealed by the scriptures It is a testament to the wives and women of today who are still struggling to discover their individual moral character and brings an enchanting and evocative depiction of the Bible characters to life Bible Wives and Women is recommended for all women and women s rights activists from those in Congressional roles to those at home Nigerian Film Culture and the Idea of the Nation Tsaaio, James Tar, Ugochukwu, Françoise, 2017-09-17 Collectively the essays brought together in this book represent a discursive confluence on Nollywood as a local film culture with a global character aspiration and reach The governing concern of the book is that texts including film texts are animated by a particular sociology and anthropology which gives them concrete existence and meaning The book argues that Nollywood the Nigerian video film text is deeply rooted in the sub soil of its social and cultural milieu Nollywood is therefore engaged in the relentless negotiation and re negotiation of the everyday lives of the people against the backdrop of their cultural traditions social contradictions and the politics of their ethnic national identity longing and belonging The essays weave an intricate and delicate argument about the critical role of Nollywood to the idea of nationhood and the logic of its narration with implications for language politics and culture in Africa The book is a valuable addition to the critical discourse on the important place of film and cinema studies in national engineering processes
