

Geography

Geography is the study of the Earth and its features. It includes the study of the physical features of the Earth, such as mountains, rivers, and oceans, and the human features, such as cities, roads, and agriculture. Geography also includes the study of the distribution of people and things across the Earth. Geography is a multidisciplinary field that draws on knowledge from other fields, such as history, biology, and chemistry. Geography is a dynamic field that is constantly evolving as new discoveries are made and new technologies are developed. Geography is a vital part of our understanding of the world and our place in it.
