BLS Report United States. Bureau of Labor Statistics, Language Choice in Interracial Marriages: The Case of Filipino-Malaysian Couples Francisco Perlas Dumanig, 2010-10-19 Language choice has become a common phenomenon in interracial encounters in which speakers are always faced with the challenge of choosing an appropriate language in various domains of communication. In multilingual and multiracial societies language choice can sometimes be crucial because of its social, political and economic impact on the speakers. Even in the smallest unit of a society which is the family, language choice plays an important role, particularly in interactions between husbands and wives who come from different linguistic and cultural backgrounds. It is therefore the objective of this research to examine the language choice in interracial couples' communication. More specifically, this research examines the language choice accommodation strategies and code switching patterns in verbal communication of Filipino Malaysian couples in the home domain. Furthermore, this study explores the occurrence of language choice in relation to ethnicity, first language and gender. To carry out the study, 60 spouses consisting of Filipino Malay, Filipino Malaysian Chinese and Filipino Malaysian Indian couples were interviewed and given questionnaires which include the socio-demographic profile, language choice and accommodation strategies used. Data were collected using the qualitative approach by interviewing and recording the conversations of Filipino Malaysian couples. To support the qualitative findings, a quantitative approach based on the questionnaire results was also used. The findings of the study reveal that Filipino Malaysian couples prefer English as their medium of communication at home, with some switching to Bahasa Malaysia, Chinese and Filipino languages. The couples' preference of English is prevalent although none of them considered English as their first language. Their mother tongue becomes the secondary preference, which is evident in the use of code switching. The findings further reveal that couples' language choice is influenced by ethnicity, first language and gender. On the other hand, the use of accommodation strategies such as approximation, interpretability, discourse management and interpersonal control accommodation strategies occurs in many interactions. The findings of the study support Giles and Powesland's 1978 Communication Accommodation Theory (CAT) that in interracial couples' communication, spouses tend to accommodate each other by using a range of accommodation strategies which include code switching.

Multilingual Global Cities Peter Siemund, Jakob R.E. Leimgruber, 2020-11-29. This volume sets out to investigate the linguistic ecologies of Singapore, Hong Kong and Dubai with chapters that combine empirical and theoretical approaches to the sociolinguistics of multilingualism. One important feature of this publication is that the five parts of the collection deal with such key issues as the historical dimension, language policies and language planning, contemporary societal multilingualism, multilingual language acquisition and the localized Englishes of global cities. The first four sections of the volume provide a multi-levelled and finely detailed description of multilingual diversity of three global cities while the final section discusses postcolonial Englishes in the context of multilingual language acquisition and language contact.

Ethnic Identity and Minority Protection Thomas W. Simon, 2012-03-28 In Ethnic Identity and Minority Protection Designation Discrimination and Brutalization Thomas W Simon examines a new framework for considering ethnic conflicts In contrast to the more traditional theories of justice Simon s theory of injustice shifts focus away from group identity toward group harms effectively making many problems such as how to define minorities in international law dramatically more manageable Simon argues that instead of promoting legislative devices like proportional representation for minorities it is more fruitful to seek adjudicative solutions to racial and ethnic related conflicts For example resources could be shifted to quasi judicial human rights treaty bodies that have adopted an injustice approach This injustice approach provides the foundation for Kosovo s case for remedial secession and helps to sort out the competing entitlement claims of Malays in different countries Indeed the priority of Thomas W Simon s Ethnic Identity and Minority Protection is to ensure the tales of designation and discrimination told at the beginning of the work do not become the stories of brutalization told at the end In short the challenge tackled in this text is to assure that reason reigns over hate
