Speaking Of Race Speaking Of Sex:

Speaking of Race, Speaking of Sex Henry Louis Gates Jr., Henry Louis Gates Jr., Anthony P. Griffin, Donald E. Lively, Nadine Strossen, 1996-10 A provocative anthology on questions of hate speech and speech regulation designed to protect minorities At the University of Pennsylvania a student is reprimanded for calling a group of African American students water buffalo Several prominent American law schools now request that professors abstain from discussing the legal aspects of rape for fear of offending students As debates over multiculturalism and political correctness crisscross the land no single issue has been more of a flash point in the ongoing culture wars than hate speech codes which seek to restrict bigoted or offensive speech and punish those who engage in it In this provocative anthology a range of prominent voices argue that hate speech restrictions are not only dangerous but counterproductive The lessons of history indicate that speech regulation designed to protect minorities is destined to be used against them Acknowledging the legitimacy of the concerns that prompt speech codes and combining support for civil liberties with an acute concern for civil rights issues Speaking of Race Speaking of Sex demonstrates that it is difficult if not impossible to draw the line between unprotected insults and protected ideas Decrying such speech regulation as overly concerned with the symbols of racism rather than its realities Speaking of Race Speaking of Sex offers a balanced and well reasoned perspective on one of the most controversial issues of our time Speaking of Race, Speaking of Sex Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), 1994 Speaking of Race, Speaking of Sex Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), 1994

Speaking of Race Celeste Headlee, 2021-11-02 Simply the best book I've read on how to have those conversations Unflinchingly honest exceptionally well reasoned and researched there is so much to admire about Speaking of Race Angela Duckworth founder and CEO of Character Lab and New York Times bestselling author of Grit A Boston Globe Most Anticipated Fall Book In this urgently needed guide the PBS host award winning journalist and author of We Need to Talk teaches us how to have productive conversations about race offering insights advice and support A self described light skinned Black Jew Celeste Headlee has been forced to speak about race including having to defend or define her own since childhood In her career as a journalist for public media she's made it a priority to talk about race proactively She's discovered however that those exchanges have rarely been productive While many people say they want to talk about race the reality is they want to talk about race with people who agree with them The subject makes us uncomfortable it's often not considered polite or appropriate To avoid these painful discussions we stay in our bubbles reinforcing our own sense of righteousness as well as our division Yet we gain nothing by not engaging with those we disagree with empathy does not develop in a vacuum and racism won't just fade away If we are to effect meaningful change as a society Headlee argues we have to be able to talk about what that change looks like without fear of losing friends and jobs or being ostracized In Speaking of Race Headlee draws from her experiences as a journalist and the latest research on bias communication and neuroscience to provide practical advice and insight for talking about race that will facilitate better conversations that can actually bring us closer together This is the book for people who have tried to debate and educate and argue and got nowhere it is the book for those who have stopped talking to a neighbor or dread Thanksgiving dinner It is an essential and timely book for all of us Speaking of Sex Deborah L. Rhode,1999 Speaking of Sex explores a topic that frequently is absent from our discussions about sex the persistence of sex based inequality and the cultural forces that sustain it On critical issues affecting women most Americans deny either that gender inequality is a serious problem or that it is one which they have a personal or political responsibility to address In tracing this no problem problem Speaking of Sex examines the most fundamental causes of women s disadvantages and the inadequacy of current public policy to combat them
