Speech Grille And Selected Poems:

Speech-grille, and Selected Poems Paul Celan, 1971 Bearing the Unbearable Frieda W. Aaron, 2012-02-01 This book is a pioneering study of Yiddish and Polish Jewish concentration camp and ghetto poetry. It reveals the impact of the immediacy of experience as a formative influence on perception, response and literary imagination, arguing that literature that is contemporaneous with unfolding events offers perceptions different from those presented after the fact. Documented here is the emergence of poetry as the dominant literary form and quickest reaction to the atrocities. The authors show that the mission of the poets was to provide testimony to their epoch, to speak for themselves and for those who perished. For the Jews in the condemned world, this poetry was a vehicle of cultural sustenance, a means of affirming traditional values and an expression of moral defiance that often kept the spirit of the readers from dying. The explication of the poetry, which has been translated by the author, offers challenging implications for the field of critical theory, including shifts in literary practices prompted by the growing atrocities that reveal a spectrum of complex experimental techniques. Tears, Liquids and Porous Bodies in Literature Across the Ages Norbert Lennartz, 2021-08-26 Taking in works from writers as diverse as William Shakespeare, William Wordsworth, Charlotte Brontë, John Keats, James Joyce and D. H. Lawrence, this book spans approximately 300 years and unpacks how bodily liquidity, porosity and petrification recur as a pattern and underlie the chequered history of the body and genders in literature. Lennartz examines the precarious relationship between porosity and its opposite, closure, containment and stoniness and explores literary history as a meandering narrative in which female porosity and male stoniness clash, showing how different societies and epochs respond to and engage with bodily porosity. This book considers the ways that this relationship is constantly renegotiated and where effusive and feminine genres such as sloppy letters and streams of consciousness are pitted against stony and astringent forms of masculinity like epitaphs, sonnets and the Bildungsroman. Allegory Revisited Anna-Teresa Tymieniecka, 2012-12-06 Focusing mainly upon language, communication, textuality etc. as is overwhelmingly today's fashion, we miss the very raison d'être of literature and language itself. Moving a step further in our investigation of the anthropologico-ontopoietic sources of the life-significance of literature by unravelling the function of imaginatio creatrix in man's self-interpretation in existence, this collection seeks to bring forth the royal role of allegory in the fostering of culture. A conjoint work of human elemental passions and of the human spirit, allegory mediates between lofty ideals of the highest human strivings and the pedestrian realm of facts. Interpretative or theoretical studies encompass allegory mediaeval, modern and post-modern in various literatures. Among the authors are Tymieniecka, Kronegger, Jorge Garcia Gomez, V. Osadnik, H. Hellerstein, H. Rudnick, R. Kiefer, V. Fichera, K. Haney, Ch. Raffini, J. Williamson, B. Ross and Sitansu Ray. To Mend the World Emil L. Fackenheim, 1994-06-22 This subtle and nuanced study is clearly Fackenheim's most important book. Paul Mendes-Flohr, magnificent in sweep and in execution of detail. Franklin H. Littell. In To Mend the World, Emil L. Fackenheim points the way to Judaism's renewal in a world and an age in which all of our notions about God humanity and revelation have been severely challenged He tests the resources within Judaism for healing the breach between secularism and revelation after the Holocaust Spinoza Rosenzweig Hegel Heidegger and Buber figure prominently in his account

The Implosion of Negativity Andreas Hau, 2010
Dissertation im Fachbereich Nordamerikanische Literatur und Kultur der Universität des Saarlandes The Implosion of Negativity ist die erste Monografie zu Paul Austers Frühwerk Bis 1980 betätigte sich Auster zehn Jahre lang fast ausschließlich als Lyriker um danach nie wieder ein Gedicht zu veröffentlichen The Implosion of Negativity versucht zu ergründen wie es zu diesem Bruch kam und analysiert detailliert Austers poetisches Vorleben Dabei werden bislang unbeachtete Einflüsse wie Martin Buber und Paul Celan zutage gefördert Die abschließende Untersuchung von The New York Trilogy zeigt exemplarisch welche neuen interpretatorischen Ansätze die Kenntnis von Austers vergessenem Frühwerk ermöglicht Der untote Lyriker wird zum Phantom das unablässig Austers Romane heimsucht und antreibt Die Dissertation The Implosion of Negativity ist in englischer Sprache verfasst Der Anhang enthält eine deutsche Zusammenfassung eine umfassende Bibliographie und ein persönliches Interview mit Paul Auster Englischer Klappentext For most readers and critics Paul Auster's oeuvre begins with The New York Trilogy yet his major success as a novelist was preceded by a decade of almost obsessive devotion to poetry The Implosion of Negativity is the first book length study of Paul Auster's early work From his dense intensely lyric sequences of the early 1970s to the more discursive style of Auster's final book of poems Facing the Music 1980 and on to his experimental prose of the early eighties The Implosion of Negativity traces a fascinating journey through the author's formative years

Andreas Hau s dissertation begins with a detailed analysis of Auster s early long poem Unearth examines overlooked influences such as Paul Celan and Martin Buber and continues with Auster s exploration of his Jewish heritage in Wall Writing his rediscovery of the American objectivists in Disappearances and his encounters with the visual arts in Fragments from Cold Subsequent A Handbook of Dialogue Mikolaj Golubiewski, Joanna Kulas, Krzysztof Czyżewski, 2011

Cameron, 2014-10-15 Western Art and Jewish Presence in the Work of Paul Celan Roots and Ramifications of the Meridian Speech addresses a central problem in the work of a poet who holds a unique position in the intellectual history of the twentieth century On the one hand he was perhaps the last great figure of the Western poetic tradition one who took up the dialogue with its classics and who responded to the questions of his day from a global concern if often cryptically And on the other hand Paul Celan was a witness to and interim survivor of the Holocaust These two identities raise questions that were evidently present for Celan in the very act of poetry This study takes the form of a commentary on Celan s most important statement of his poetics and beliefs The Meridian which is an extraordinarily condensed text packed with allusions and multiple meanings It reflects his early work and anticipates later developments so that the discussion of The Meridian becomes a consideration of his oeuvre as a whole The commentary is an act of listening an attempt to hear what these words meant to the poet to see the landscapes from which they come and the reality they are trying to project and in the light of this to arrive at a clear picture of the relation between Celan s Jewishness and his vocation as a Western writer The

Poesis in Extremis Daniel Feldman, Efraim Sicher, 2024-02-08 How can genocide be witnessed through imaginative literature How can the Holocaust affect readers who were not there Reading the work of major figures such as Elie Wiesel Paul Celan Avrom Sutzkever Ida Fink Wladyslaw Szlengel Itzhak Katzenelson and Czeslaw Milosz Poesis in Extremis poses fundamental questions about how prose and poetry are written under extreme conditions either in real time or immediately after the Holocaust Framed by discussion of literary testimony with Wiesel's literary memoir Night as an entry point this innovative study explores the blurred boundary of fact and fiction in Holocaust literature It asks whether there is a poetics of the Holocaust and what might be the criteria for literary witnessing Wartime writing in particular tests the limits of poesis in extremis when poets faced their own annihilation and wrote in the hope that their words like a message in a bottle would somehow reach readers Through Poesis in Extremis Daniel Feldman and Efraim Sicher probe the boundaries of Holocaust literature as well as the limits of representation

Gendered Testimonies of the Holocaust, Petra M. Schweitzer, 2016-04-08 Gendered Testimonies of the Holocaust Writing Life begins with the premise that writing proves virtually synonymous with survival bearing the traces of life and of death carried within those who survived the atrocities of the Nazis In reading specific testimonies by survivor writers Paul Celan Charlotte Delbo Olga Lengyel Gisella Perl and Dan Pagis this text seeks to answer the question How was it possible for these survivors to write about human destruction if death is such an intimate part of the survivors survival This book shows how the works of these survivors arise creatively from a vigorous spark the desire to preserve memory Testimony for each of these writers is a form of relation to oneself but also to others It situates each survivor's anguish in writing as a need to write so as to affirm life Writing as such always bears witness to the life of the one who should be dead by now and thus to the miracle of having survived This book's claim is that the act of writing testimony manifests itself as the most intensive form of life possible More specifically its exploration of writing's affirmation of life and assertion of identity focuses on the gendered dimension of expression and language This book does not engage in the binary structure of gender and the hierarchically constructed roles in terms of privileging the male over the female The criteria that guide its discussion on Gendered Testimonies emerge out of Levinas's concept of maternity

An Introduction to Literature, Criticism and Theory Andrew Bennett, Nicholas Royle, 2016-03-02 Lively original and highly readable An Introduction to Literature Criticism and Theory is the essential guide to literary studies Starting at The Beginning and concluding with The End chapters range from the familiar such as Character Narrative and The Author to the more unusual such as Secrets Pleasure and Ghosts Now in its fifth edition Bennett and Royle's classic textbook successfully illuminates complex ideas by engaging directly with literary works so that a reading of Jane Eyre opens up ways of thinking about racial difference for example while Chaucer Raymond Chandler and Monty Python are all invoked in a discussion of literature and laughter The fifth edition has been revised throughout and includes four new chapters Feelings Wounds Body and Love to incorporate exciting recent developments in literary studies In addition to further reading sections at the end of each chapter the book contains a comprehensive bibliography and a glossary of key literary terms A breath of fresh air in a field that can often seem dry and dauntingly theoretical this book will open the reader's eyes to the exhilarating possibilities of reading and studying literature

Pioneering North America Klaus Martens, 2000 On Wings of Moonlight Barbara Ellen Galli, 2007-03-07 On Wings of Moonlight a phrase taken from one of the poems illuminates the poetic and philosophic kinship between Wolfson Franz Rosenzweig one of his influences since graduate school and Paul Celan Displaying a deep knowledge of the literary philosophical Jewish and feminist traditions informing Wolfson's academic work Galli argues that his prose cannot be fully appreciated without consideration of its poetic dimensions Revenge of the Aesthetic Michael P. Clark, 2023-11-15 This cutting edge collection of essays showcases the work of some of the most influential theorists of the past thirty years as they grapple with the question of how literature should be treated in contemporary theory The contributors challenge trends that have recently dominated the field especially those that emphasize social and political issues over close reading and other analytic methods traditionally associated with literary criticism Written especially for this collection these essays argue for the importance of aesthetics poetics and aesthetic theory as they present new and stimulating perspectives on the directions which theory and criticism will take in the future In addition to providing a selection of distinguished critics writing at their best this collection is valuable because it represents a variety of fields and perspectives that are not usually found together in the same volume Michael Clark's introduction provides a concise cogent history of major developments and trends in literary theory from World War II to the present making the entire volume essential reading for students and scholars of literature literary theory and philosophy This cutting edge collection of essays showcases the work of some of the most influential theorists of the past thirty years as they grapple with the question of how literature should be treated in contemporary theory The contributors challenge trends th

Memory and Totalitarianism Luisa Passerini, Understanding Europe's past became an urgent matter with the events of August 1991 in Moscow in the former Soviet Union The invasion of Moscow's streets by Russian people rejecting an attempted coup d'etat was the culmination of a process that had been initiated years before and raised crucial questions To what extent can these events be considered the end of an era stretching from World War I to the 1980s when Europe experienced many forms of dictatorship To what extent can the various forms of dictatorship Europe experienced in the twentieth century be grouped together Can any sort of affinity be established between them The new introduction to the paperback edition of this volume in the Memory and Narrative series Leydesdorff and Crownshaw underline the fundamental

importance of the struggle for memory and its meaning Memory and Totalitarianism explores the remembered experiences of individuals living under different totalitarian regimes and examines the construction of memory in the aftermath of those regimes collapse It attempts to situate the findings of oral history in the context of contemporary memory It wrestles with the most painful memories that Europeans have of this century at the end of the Cold War These memories compare with oral history's research into such experiences as racist attitudes against blacks in the South or the cultural and psychological effects of apartheid in South Africa or the Aborigines claim to their own history and to a new idea of history in Australia Totalitarianisms are products of the twentieth century that go far beyond earlier manifestations of absolutism and autocracy in their effort to completely control political social and intellectual life They were made possible by modern industrialism and technology Therefore the theme of the book expands to include many other experiences that relate to totalitarian mentalities Luisa Passerini is professor of cultural history at the University of Torino and external professor at the European University Institute Florence Her present trends of research are European identity the historical relationships between the discourse on Europe and the discourse on love gender and generation as historical categories memory and subjectivity Among her recent publications are Europe in Love Love in Europe Imagination and Politics Between the Wars Il mito d'Europa Radici antiche per nuovi simboli Selma Leydesdorff is professor of oral history at the University of Amsterdam Her publications include We Lived with Dignity and with Kim Lacy Rogers Trauma Life Stories of Survivors Richard Crownshaw is a lecturer in the Department of English at Manchester Metropolitan University UK where his teaching includes 19th and 20th century American literature and representations of the Holocaust He is also an Associate Fellow of the Institute of Germanic and Romance Studies University of London

Circadian Joanna Klink, 2007-07-31 A beautiful new collection from an acclaimed poet The poems in Joanna Klink's new collection Circadian take as their guiding vision circadian clocks Moved by the presence and withdrawal of light these internal clocks influence rhythms of sleeping and waking the opening and closing of flowers the speed at which the heart pumps blood the migratory cycles of birds With love poems and prayers Joanna Klink offers us patterns of glowing alertness and shared life patterns that speak to the flickering circuit between inner and outer landscapes that bind each beating heart to the pull of the tides

By Words Alone Sidra DeKoven Ezrahi, 2008-10-03 The creative literature that evolved from the Holocaust constitutes an unprecedented encounter between art and life Those who wrote about the Holocaust were forced to extend the limits of their imaginations to encompass unspeakably violent extremes of human behavior The result as Ezrahi shows in By Words Alone is a body of literature that transcends national and cultural boundaries and shares a spectrum of attitudes toward the concentration camps and the world beyond toward the past and the future
