Speeches and Writings of Sir William Wedderburn (Classic Reprint) William Wedderburn, 2015-07-13 Excerpt from Speeches and Writings of Sir William Wedderburn It is with feelings of inexpressible sorrow that I attempt to pen this little note About the middle of November 1916 I wrote to Sir William Wedderburn requesting him to accord permission to me to bring out a volume of his Speeches and Writings He was good enough to comply with my request and also to help me in the selection of the matter But for the exigencies of business this volume should have been out by the end of last year as originally announced and it is to me nothing short of a misfortune that I have been denied the privilege of presenting him with a copy of this book In my letter to Sir William regarding the selection of matter for his speeches and writings I suggested among other things the need for giving prominence to his many contributions on the condition of the Indian raiyat as I knew from personal conversations and correspondence which it was my inestimable privilege to have with him how deeply interested he was in the improvement of the economic condition of the Indian raiyats It is sad to recall the following extract from his letter dated the 7th January 1917 I am very glad that you will give prominence to the Famine Union and the proposed Enquiry into the economic condition of the villages as the woes of the Indian raiyat have been from the very beginning the stimulus which has kept me tied to the labouring oar of Indian Reform About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
