Kearns, 2005-11 Documents the 1946 survival story of six Navy officers whose Martin Mariner Seaplane crashed in the Antarctic during a white out snowstorm describing the harrowing conditions from which they escaped over the course of thirteen days Gold: How it Shaped History Alan Ereira, 2024-11-30 Gold is not what we think It is usually discussed in the context of wealth and art but this book has a broader subject so fundamental that it has been largely unremarked Informed by a mass of recent discoveries and a South American indigenous perspective it offers a new way of understanding the history of civilization Gold has been coinage treasure and adornment But it has been much more as the hidden driver of wars and revolutions the rise and fall of empires and the transformation of societies As the sun traveled east to west across the sky gold incorruptible and corrupting flowed west to east hand to hand across the world That flow has brought empires to grow and collapse and driven plunder conquest and colonization It brought about wars and revolutions empowered new forms of arts and science and created the capitalist consumer economy that dominates us now All the gold people ever shaped still exists shining as new it can be mislaid but never decays Right from its first appearance on the west shore of the Black Sea long before the rise of Egypt and Mesopotamia gold crowned the first proto king Ever since it has been regarded as value incarnate with transcendental power The quantity we take has been increasing steadily for 6 500 years Now extraction accelerates Our gold mountain has doubled in the last fifty years Yet its price increases faster While the quantity doubled its buying power multiplied by six What does gold do that makes us want it so much As Alan Ereira reveals in this skilfully woven narrative gold is the hidden actor that shapes our story The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer , 1907 *Grand Lodge Bulletin. L. Higham, 2006 Presents scholarly views on the comparison of the Canadian and American Wests and the various methodologies involved Gold Diggers Charlotte Gray, 2011-08-23

Between 1896 and 1899 thousands of people lured by gold braved a grueling journey into the remote wilderness of North America. Within two years Dawson City in the Canadian Yukon grew from a mining camp of four hundred to a raucous town of over thirty thousand people. The stampede to the Klondike was the last great gold rush in history. Scurvy, dysentery, frostbite, and starvation stalked all who dared to be in Dawson. And yet the possibilities attracted people from all walks of life, not only prospectors but also newspapermen, bankers, prostitutes, priests, and lawmen. Gold Diggers follows six stampeders: Bill Haskell, a farm boy who hungered for striking gold; Father Judge, a Jesuit priest who aimed to save souls and lives; Belinda Mulrooney, a twenty-four-year-old who became the richest businesswoman in town; Flora Shaw, a journalist who transformed the town's governance; Sam Steele, the officer who finally established order in the lawless town; and most famously, Jack London, who left without gold but with the stories that would make him a legend. Drawing on letters, memoirs, newspaper articles, and stories, Charlotte Gray delivers an enthralling tale of the gold madness that swept through a continent and changed a landscape and its people forever.
