

Fantasy Close to Home Theme Book

Stanley Lambchop is a normal, healthy boy. True, a bedboard fell on him one night, making him flat as a pancake. But boys will be boys—and besides, being flat has its advantages. Stanley can go in and out of rooms, even when the door is shut, just by lying down and sliding underneath. He can travel by envelope if an airplane ticket is too expensive. And how many kids get to actually be a kite, not simply fly one?

But though being flat leads Stanley into many adventures, he finally begins to wonder if he'll ever be normal again.

"A wild, wonderfully silly adventure." —Publishers Weekly

"Cheerful nonsense drawings reinforce a wholly original concoction, a triumph of make-believe fun." —The Horn Book
