Spencer Brade, M.D. Frank G. Slaughter, From the Author of Code Five Doctor's Wives Doctor's Daughters and Plague Ship The bitter struggle of a young doctor who sold his honor for success BUSINESS MARRIAGE The marriage of Dr Spencer Brade to Carol Grahame was as cool and calculated as a business deal He needed money as desperately as she needed a husband With the Grahame fortune he could start a practice As his wife Carol could give his name to her unborn child Everything went according to schedule until Spencer found himself in love with the beautiful girl he had married For the first time her love was important But he knew he couldn't expect her to return the love of a man who had allowed himself to be sold Only after he had paid back the money she had given would his honor be cleared To get that money quickly he was willing to do anything anything Spencer brade m.d., by frank g. slaughter Frank g Slaughter, 1945 The

Hornblum, Judith L. Newman, Gregory J. Dober, 2013-06-25 The sad history of young children especially institutionalized children being used as cheap and available test subjects the raw material for experimentation started long before the atomic age and went well beyond exposure to radioactive isotopes Experimental vaccines for hepatitis measles polio and other diseases exploratory therapeutic procedures such as electroshock and lobotomy and untested pharmaceuticals such as curare and thorazine were all tested on young children in hospitals orphanages and mental asylums as if they were some widely accepted intermediary step between chimpanzees and humans Occasionally children supplanted the chimps Bereft of legal status or protectors institutionalized children were often the test subjects of choice for medical researchers hoping to discover a new vaccine prove a new theory or publish an article in a respected medical journal Many took advantage of the opportunity One would be hard pressed to identify a researcher whose professional career was cut short because he incorporated week old infants ward bound juvenile epileptics or the profoundly retarded in his experiments In short involuntary non therapeutic and dangerous experiments on children were far from an unusual or dishonorable endeavor during the last century Plague Ship Frank G. Slaughter, From the Author of Code Five Doctor's Wives and Doctor's Daughters High in the Andes Mountains of Peru an archaeologist stumbles upon an ancient tomb unwittingly releasing the germs from a civilization doomed by a plague over 5 000 years ago What happens when this deadly organism for which there is no antidote reappears forms the basis of this sensational novel by the author of Code Five This is the story of one man in particular Dr Grant Reed and the dedicated crew of the international hospital ship Mercy as they set about the task of quarantining the first victims of a hideous plague Set adrift by frightened Peruvians the aging and crippled ship faces a hurricane mutinous patients and even a pair of great white sharks grisly mascots of a ship of death Frank Slaughter here takes on one of the most important and exciting subjects to be found among his novels the complex high stakes world of interglobal medicine taking us behind the public deeds to the private people whose courage can make the difference between today's flus and tomorrow's headlines This is one of Frank Slaughter's finest medical suspense stories a superbly thrilling tale based on some all too real possibilities Pilgrims in Paradise Frank G. Slaughter, It was a cold winter day in the England of 1647 and Paul Sutton a young doctor began to feel the lure of the tropics But when he signed on as medical officer to a shipload of pilgrims bound for the Bahamas the beckoning attractions spelled far more than escape for Paul knew that the pilgrims leader his own brother was a religious fanatic Throughout the journey Paul tried to help and understand his brother Silas for he knew the resolve that motivated the Puritan band to seek a new home But despite his efforts Paul soon found himself enveloped in the torment of a deep and forbidden love for the beautiful Anne Trevor his brother's fiancée

PILGRIMS IN PARADISE with its remarkable portrait of a religious zealot bent on carrying the cause of the non-conformists to the New World of the settlement and incipient rebellion against Silas' iron rule of bigotry superstition and passion of war and trial for life is rewarding and realistic reading another in Frank G Slaughter's long line of successful novels Catalog of Copyright Entries. Code Five Frank G. Slaughter, Dr Jud Tyler had almost decided that it had been a mistake to come back to Framingham and his first sight of the old hospital building in an advanced stage of dilapidation only strengthened that conviction But waiting inside those grimy walls was a world Dr Tyler had never known and Dr Tyler's confrontation with it would leave them both profoundly changed forever Some of the people in that world Chuck Rogers Jud Tyler's Army Chaplain in Viet nam now fighting another kind of war in a slum hospital Asa Ford the Superintendent of St Luke's Hospital whose ethics have slipped so far that he is about to fall over them Samantha Fellowes rich young beautiful divorcee whose need for a doctor has nothing to do with medicine Eric Cates a voice of reason among the town's black militants who is willing to pay his debt to the white man who made his education possible even when it puts him in danger Kathryn Galloway beautiful red haired nurse whose super efficiency hides a heart bruised once too often in the game of love Angus Claiborne millionaire slum lord who is just about to discover how expensive sub standard housing can be to the owner These are some of the people who help make Frank Slaughter's novel a fascinating dramatic excursion into some of the simmering situations that threaten to explode in cities all across the nation

CODE FIVE FRANK G. SLAUGHTER Code Five Code Five The man at the head of the stretcher shouted and his words signalled the gravest of all emergency conditions cardiac arrest But the words might well have been sounded for St Luke's Hospital itself overcrowded understaffed run down a veritable dumping ground for all the city's charity cases for her heart also seemed to have stopped Only one man had any hope for her future and that hope was centered on a bitter war wounded unhappy surgeon with crippled hands

Fort Everglades Frank G. Slaughter, 1967* Violence passion and murder in the savage swamplands of Florida Only one man could quench his thirst for blood And as Roy watched Chittamicco's canoe advance he knew he was that man It would be a duel to the death two hate filled men armed with spears that killed at a thrust As Roy steeled himself to strike first the Indian bent into his dugout then came up with a woman struggling in his arms Roy was paralyzed by sudden fear The woman was Mary the girl he loved Before Roy could spring Chittamicco with a mighty heft of his shoulders lifted Mary on one extended palm Then with a violent thrust he tossed her limp body into the swirling water
