a unique mixture of political memoir and policy analysis An insider's account of how Saskatchewan avoided fiscal catastrophe it reveals the dynamics of the federal provincial finance ministers meetings that saw the rise of Paul Martin and his radical transformation of Canada's finances MacKinnon Canada's first female finance minister provides keen observations on how personalities and shared regional perspectives cut across party affiliations in the evolution of federal provincial deliberations on managing the debt crisis Although initially opposed to the radical cuts and downloading unilaterally imposed by the federal minister of Finance in his 1995 budget she now argues that they were essential and analyses how they have irrevocably transformed the Canadian federation MacKinnon provides a timely analysis of the implications of the fiscal crisis for the future of medicare and Canada's other social programs and shows why politicians must involve the Canadian public in an open and frank debate about the challenges and choices facing the nation Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2005 United States.
