Sugartime Susan Hauser, 1997 In this meditative celebration of a yearly event gathering and cooking maple sap Houser reflects on Native American traditions and on the process she herself uses when making maple syrup in northern Minnesota In what is as much a practical guide as a personal essay Houser writes with beauty and simplicity about the joys of collecting the sap as soon as it begins to flow and of what she has learned over the years about cooking it down into syrup She also observes and celebrates the return of bald eagles the slow transition from winter to spring and the stately forests surrounding her home at the same time offering a handful of recipes featuring maple sugar Her lyrical ode describes in brief various types of maple trees recommending the best ones to employ for sugaring Alice Joyce 112p Sugartime
