Last of the Summer Wine Andrew Vine,2010-09-25 An insider's look at story behind the longest running situation comedy in British television history Quite simply Last of the Summer Wine is the longest running comedy programme in the world It premiered thirty seven years ago in 1973 and after thirty one series it finally came to an end even though all its original protagonists Compo Foggy even Nora Batty are now dead Remarkably for a series of such longevity and international appeal it is all about elderly people has little action or plot and is set and filmed in and around the small Yorkshire town of Holmfirth Now Andrew Vine the deputy editor of Yorkshire's daily newspaper has written the definitive history of this television phenomenon It covers the show's inauspicious beginnings with low ratings its endless reinvention as participants like Bill Owen Michael Bates Brian Wilde and Kathy Staff retired or died the appearance of a string of guest stars from John Cleese and Norman Wisdom to Thora Hird and Russ Abbott both of whom soon found themselves fixtures in the cast and the ingenious plot contrivances as the protagonists became too old and frail to attempt any of the slapstick stunts with runaway prams indeed any outdoor action The town of Holmfirth is now a year round tourist attraction and the endless availability of the show via streaming ensures that Last of the Summer Wine and the book it inspired will live on for generations of fans
