Sun After Dark Flights Into The Foreign:

Sun After Dark Pico Iyer, 2005-07 Pico Iyer One Of The Most Compelling And Profoundly Provocative Travel Writers Invites Us To Accompany Him On An Array Of Exotic Explorations From L A To Yemen To Haiti And Ethiopia From A Bolivian Prison To A Hidden Monastery In Tibet He Goes To Cambodia Where The Main Tourist Attraction Is A Collection Of Skulls From The Khmer Rouge Killing Fields And Travels Through Southern Arabia In The Weeks Before September 11 2001 He Practices Meditation With Leonard Cohen And Discusses Geopolitics With The Dalai Lama Travels To Easter Island And Through The Imaginative Terrains Of W G Sebald And Kazuo Ishiguro Weaving Physical And Psychological Challenges Together Into A Seamless Narrative Throughout His Travels The Familiar Thrill Of Adventure Is Haunted By The Unsettling Questions That Arise For Iyer Everywhere He Goes How Do We Reconcile Suffering With The Sunlight Often Found Around It How Does The Foreign Instruct The Traveler Precisely By Discomfiting Him And How Does Travel Take Us More Deeply Into Reality Both Within Us And Without Intensely Affecting Iyer's Explorations Are A Road Map Of Thinking In New Ways About Our Changing World

Sun After Dark Pico Iyer, 2004-07-01 This collection of travel writing is from the author of Video Night in Kathmandu Sun After Dark Pico Iyer, 2007-12-18 One of the best travel writers now at work in the English language brings back the sights and sounds from a dozen different frontiers A cryptic encounter in the perfumed darkness of Bali a tour of a Bolivian prison conducted by an enterprising inmate a nightmarish taxi ride across southern Yemen where the men with guns may be customs inspectors or revolutionaries these are just three of the stops on Pico Iyer's latest itinerary But the true subject of Sun After Dark is the dislocations of the mind in transit And so Iyer takes us along to meditate with Leonard Cohen and talk geopolitics with the Dalai Lama He navigates the Magritte like landscape of jet lag a place that no human had ever been until forty or so years ago And on every page of this poetic and provocative book he compels us to redraw our map of the world

Cuba and the Night Pico Iyer, 2011-10-05 Having captivated readers with such gems of travel writing as Video Night in Kathmandu Pico Iyer now presents a novel whose central character is another place the melancholy ebullient and dazzlingly inconsistent island that is Castro's Cuba On almost every page you can smell the dust the cheap perfume and the rum of Havana today or better still tonight Los Angeles Times In Motion Tony Hiss, 2017-10-18 In this extraordinarily wide ranging insightful and revelatory book Tony Hiss is the much praised author of The Experience of Places delves into a unique and instantly recognizable though previously undescribed experience that can happen to us when we travel a special understanding and ability that can leave us feeling exhilarated He illustrates how throughout human history from our ancestors walking upright for the first time to astronauts walking on the moon we have repeatedly availed ourselves of this seemingly elusive quality which he calls Deep Travel The sensation of Deep Travel can overtake us Hiss says whenever we tap into a sophisticated wide awake awareness we all possess With a wealth of examples from evocative accounts of his own journeys to celebrated travel writing across the centuries Hiss identifies and rescues this powerful capacity and sets out simple techniques for accessing it no matter where we are And this is only a jumping off point for an original and penetrating explanation of how Deep Travel radically alters our perception of not only where we are but also when we are by placing us in an extended present and how it acts as an open sesame to enlarge and enrich the world around us Going even further he investigates how we can remain absolutely still but travel in time itself as our horizons move backward to include layers of nature and human culture that have gone before or project us forward to consider what our actions will mean to those who will inhabit our spot on earth a few generations from now Whether travel takes you around the corner or around the world once you've read In Motion no journey will ever feel the same

Travel Writing, Form, and Empire Julia Kuehn, Paul Smethurst, 2008-11-19 This collection of essays is an important contribution to travel writing studies looking beyond the explicitly political questions of postcolonial and gender discourses it considers the form poetics institutions and reception of travel writing in the history of empire and its aftermath Starting from the premise that travel writing studies has received much of its impetus and theoretical input from the sometimes overgeneralized precepts of postcolonial studies and gender studies this collection aims to explore more widely and more locally the expression of imperialist discourse in travel writing and also to locate within contemporary travel writing attempts to evade or re-engage with the power politics of such discourse There is a double focus then to explore further postcolonial theory in European travel writing Anglophone Francophone and Hispanic and to trace the emergence of postcolonial forms of travel writing The thread that draws the two halves of the collection together is an interest in form and relations between form and travel
