the twentieth century confronted and pushed beyond passive observation and static visual performances which are traditionally associated with the terms spectator and spectacle The crowds in fictional lynch mob scenes clash with the idea of positive collective action because the crowd s vigilantism defies legitimate legal and democratic processes Lynch mobs in contrast to other crowds like strikes or political rallies do not reclaim the democratic process from the control of the powerful and wealthy but rather oppose those practices violently without regard to justice As a figure who is simultaneously within and outside the crowd the spectator often in the form of a reporter character is in a unique position to express the fractures occurring between the individual and the collective in American society Racial conflicts are a key aspect of the crowd scenes examined American writers contended with these issues by using the spectator to observe question and challenge readers to consider the impact on the structure of American society Chinese Fiction of the Cultural Revolution Lan Yang,1998-07-01 The book covers the choice of subject matter authorship and readership of Cultural Revolution fiction It analyses the characterization of heroes promoted in the literary and artistic field during this period By comparing Cultural Revolution fiction with the fiction of the preceding period with Soviet fiction and with some traditional Chinese and Western fiction this analysis emphasizes the ideological and cultural significance of the characteristics shown in the heroes personal background and their physical temperamental and behavioural qualities etc This book will be of significant benefit to both students and scholars of Chinese literature language and society
