The Sunday-school World, 1885 The Claims of Kinfolk Dylan C. Penningroth, 2004-07-21 In The Claims of Kinfolk Dylan Penningroth uncovers an extensive informal economy of property ownership among slaves and sheds new light on African American family and community life from the heyday of plantation slavery to the freedom generation of the 1870s By focusing on relationships among blacks as well as on the more familiar struggles between the races Penningroth exposes a dynamic process of community and family definition He also includes a comparative analysis of slavery and slave property ownership along the Gold Coast in West Africa revealing significant differences between the African and American contexts Property ownership was widespread among slaves across the antebellum South as slaves

seized the small opportunities for ownership permitted by their masters While there was no legal framework to protect or even recognize slaves property rights an informal system of acknowledgment recognized by both blacks and whites enabled slaves to mark the boundaries of possession In turn property ownership and the negotiations it entailed influenced and shaped kinship and community ties Enriching common notions of slave life Penningroth reveals how property ownership engendered conflict as well as solidarity within black families and communities Moreover he demonstrates that property had less to do with individual legal rights than with constantly negotiated extralegal social ties Bulletin ,1916 The Westminster Review ,1899 Slave Narratives - Collected Works (Illustrated) Slave Narratives,2025-09-25 Slave narratives comprise a prominent tradition of American literature shaping the form and themes of some of the most celebrated and controversial writing in the country s history The first slave narrative to become an international bestseller was the Interesting Narrative of the Life of Olaudah Equiano which introduced the slave ship through the innocent perspective of an African captive With the rise of the abolition movement in the early nineteenth century there was a demand for hard hitting eyewitness accounts of the harsh realities of slavery Numerous former slaves published detailed and engaging accounts of their enslavement and daring escapes to freedom This collection provides the most notable slave narratives published on both sides of the Atlantic spanning the mid eighteenth century to the modern era From the innovative brilliance of Henry Brown s escape in a box to Harriet Jacobs harrowing ordeal of sexual harassment from Ellen Craft s ingenious impersonation of a white slaver to William Still s heroic accounts of the Underground Railroad from Solomon Northup s endurance through twelve years of slavery to Douglass seminal accounts of the slavery institution these noble men and women have preserved their extraordinary tales of bravery defiance and hope for countless generations Version 1 Beautifully illustrated with images relating to Slave Narrative authors Concise introductions to all the texts 44 separate books with individual contents tables Rare accounts appearing for the first time in digital publishing Images of how the books were first published giving your eReader a taste of the original texts Excellent formatting of the texts Easily locate the stories you want to read Includes the complete WPA Slave Narrative Collection completed during the Great Depression preserving over 2 300 accounts available in no other collection Ordering of texts into chronological order CONTENTS The Narratives A Narrative of the Most Remarkable Particulars in the Life of James Albert Ukawsaw Gronniosaw 1772 The Interesting Narrative of the Life of Olaudah Equiano 1789 A Narrative of the Life and Adventures 1798 by Venture Smith The Blind African Slave 1810 by Benjamin F Prentiss The Life History and Unparalleled Sufferings of John Jea the African Preacher 1811 Life of William Grimes the Runaway Slave 1825 A Narrative of Some Remarkable Incidents in the Life of Solomon Bayley 1825 Slavery in the United States 1836 by Charles Ball A Narrative of Adventures and Escape of Moses Roper from American Slavery 1837 Recollections of Slavery by a Runaway Slave 1838 by James Matthews The Narrative of Lunsford Lane 1842 Narrative of the Life of Frederick Douglass 1845 Narratives of the Sufferings of Lewis and Milton Clarke
