Carol Smallwood

Sunrise Of Morning Hill:

General Lee Fitzhugh Lee,1894 In this volume the attempt has been made to imperfectly supply the great desire to have something from Robert E Lee s pen by introducing at the periods referred to such extracts from his private letters as would be of great interest He is thus made for the first time to give his impressions and opinions on most of the great events with which he was so closely connected Preface Life and Letters of Robert Edward Lee John William Jones,1906 An Educational Guide to the National Park System Carol Smallwood,1989 A guide to the unique resources available from 327 national park system facilities Sunrise from the Hill-top Beatrice Barmby,1919 Optimum Timeframes for Detecting Songbird Vocalizations in the Black Hills Todd R. Mills,2000 Birds are indicators of vegetation structure and ecological conditions The singing activity of birds declines during late morning periods which can affect estimates of abundance and conclusions regarding vegetative conditions indexed by birds Therefore it is important to quantify periods of bird activity so biologists can plan studies We determined hourly detections from singing males of 22 nongame bird species in ponderosa pine quaking aspen and grassland vegetation types in the Black Hills of South Dakota Detections of 12 of 22 species differed among 1 hr intervals after sunrise Detections of yellowrumped warblers Townsend s solitaires red breasted nuthatches western tanagers and American robins decreased on count episodes more than 4 hrs after sunrise Detections of dusky flycatchers declined on count episodes more than 3 hrs after sunrise and detections of black capped chickadees were greatest during the first hour after sunrise and declined afterward Detections of many other species from songs or calls decreased on count episodes more than 5 hrs after sunrise We recommend that bird counts in the Black Hills be completed within 4 hrs after sunrise so estimates of bird abundance are not affected by reduced singing among males Lippincott's Monthly Magazine ,1911 *The poems of George Heath, selected and arranged by J.
