Super 8 Jonathan F. Gunter, Unesco, 1976 The Lost Cinema of Mexico Olivia Cosentino, Brian Price, 2022-02-08 This volume challenges the dismissal of Mexican filmmaking during the 1960s through 1980s an era long considered a low budget departure from the nation's earlier Golden Age examining the critical implications of discovering uncovering and recovering forgotten or ignored films

Amateur Media and Participatory Cultures Annamaria Motrescu-Mayes, Susan Aasman, 2019-01-23 Amateur Media and Participatory Cultures aims to delineate the boundary line between today's amateur media practice and the canons of professional media and film practice Identifying various feasible interpretative frameworks from historical to anthropological perspectives the volume proposes a critical language able to cope with amateur and new media's rapid technological and interpretative developments Conscious of the fact that amateur media continue to be seen as the benchmark of visual records of authentic rather than mass media derived events Annamaria Motrescu Mayes and Susan Aasman pay particular attention to the ways in which diverse sets of concepts of amateur media have now merged across global visual narratives and everyday communication protocols Building on key research questions and content analysis in media and communication studies they have assessed differences between professional and amateur media productions based on the ways in which the originators of an image have been influenced by or have challenged their context of production This proposes that technical skills degrees of staging and or censoring visual information and patterns in media socialisation define central differences between professional and amateur media production distribution and consumption The book's methodical and interdisciplinary approach provides valuable insights into the ways in which visual priming cultural experiences and memory building are currently shaped stored and redistributed across new media technologies and visual channels

Movies on Home Ground Ian Craven, 2020-07-13 Movies on Home Ground Explorations in Amateur Cinema offers a critical response to the still under explored mode of amateur cinema as a particular sphere of British film practice Concentrating upon a roughly fifty year period 1930 1980 during which such filmmaking grew rapidly as a significant leisure activity in Britain the volume shows how popular cine assumed distinctive institutional and ideological forms and some remarkable aesthetic emphases grounded in consistent technical and critical apparatuses Although an outline history of such filmmaking is certainly implicit the priority of Movies On Home Ground is to offer a series of overlapping perspectives on amateur movie making with a view to locating such filmmaking as a component of the broader shape of British film culture Emphasis is thus given to institutional contexts technical determinants and the social formations of practising filmmakers as well as to concerns with the construction of amateur outlooks understandings of amateur aesthetics and the remarkable diversity of amateur genericity The anthology thus supplies a text offering support to study courses dealing with the many varieties of non professional participation best understood as truly amateur rather than as independent or alternative filmmaking By granting the amateur a place within the acknowledged range of significant interventions the recognised canon of British filmmaking is widened in fascinating new directions Big as Life ,1998
