Bhattacharjee,2025-02-19 Dancing on a Thread is one of my finest poetry collections holding 20 poems written between August 2024 and February 2025 The poem s themes are pure unconditional love with broken heart feeling where love searches for its beloved among a thousand mirrors but unsure behind which mirror the person is hiding and for finding the mirror how many mirrors the person has to break It s fun and feels so good to write love a love which is so good green and red with flushed cheeks of heroine and strong chin of hero where beauty lays where love is often showcase as in poetry as I write Maybe not all the time love is like it Maybe sometimes it s sounds better to show the love as it is Raw and Fragile Maybe Vulnerable too They say when pain is written beautifully it becomes more captivating than love itself And if my words touch the reader s heart that is the greatest gift an author can receive Maybe sometimes pain is written in a way which turns into a joy itself A joy a rare joy where readers cry but deep inside they are grateful to read such a work which has touched their heart Maybe that s what the pure and raw emotion is In this Poem Collection Dancing on a Thread I have tried to explore the raw emotions which may touch reader s heart A Pain Written in a Such Beautiful Way Which Turns into Joy Ah Man you don t know the meaning of my words it holds a huge blank page inside waiting for me to be written Now it became like when I close my eyes I see you and when I open my eyes I want to see you That s in another book but for now read my third Poem Collection Dancing on a Thread and tell me did my words touch your heart If it could be a novel By Somnath Bhattacharjee I want to call your name tonight I want to scream and tell you How much I love you Even though today I want to snuggle with you Smell your neck still moon is taking you away I don t know how long I ll try to keep you with me Your smell is making me addicted of you more It s like I m seeing blurry if you aren t holding my hands As I m watching the end of my movie at my TV If it could be a novel I can hear sound of your payels Tonight I want to dress you up as my bride I want to call you by the sweet names I want to show you the ring I ve bought for you Yes not all dreams are true but If it s just a mirage can t I watch it for more a while Even though it will make me smile while in tears Blurring my eyes more making me deaf As I can only hear my own screaming in an empty room If it could be a novel The day we meet our tears came out Seeing each other in screen for years Then seeing in person watching your beauty Memorizing looks beautiful fragrance Your blushful eyes flushed cheeks Desire to live together in heart Love for me unconditional Your soft spoken voice Your love and love If it could be a novel I wish it could be a novel of mine Where I could be the hero and write as I want Make us love cuddle snuggle without a fear Where they wouldn't tell us to separate Where there's no fear and in pain in our eyes But it's not the novel of mine If I knew I might read a little hoping not to be addicted I would have kept the novel in my heart safe and securely But it's too far away now tomorrow won't be much different but If it could be a novel I see your smile in a hundred darkness I see a fresh red rose in a hundred dead rose I get the hope everything will be better again But the novel is already written I know tomorrow I'll get the same hope again Trucks filled with hope will come Drive me crazy again make me addict But we both know it's not possible Tomorrow won't be same nothing would be different If it could be a novel

The Book of Popular Songs, 1860 The Alabama Folk Lyric Ray Broadus Browne, 1979 Alabamians have always been a singing people The settlers who moved into the various sections of the state brought with them songs which reflected their national origins and geographical backgrounds and as they spread into the hills and over the lowlands they created new songs out of the conditions under which they lived Also they absorbed songs from outside sources whenever these pieces could be adapted to their sentiments and ways of life Thus by a process of memory composition and recreation they developed a rich body of folk songs The following collection a part of the effort to moments with nightmare fueled depression take a toll on the mind and soul of a person Writing about the pain felt at the lowest moments and spreading those painful yet delicate emotions on paper became a daily release These words or descriptions of the pain of broken love and mental health illnesses were never meant to be shared Lonely personal thoughts maybe even a diary of emotions were meant to be collected in the dusty bottom of a drawer However in an effort to express the darkest pain some of the poems were exposed to a few friends and a counselor who encouraged the publishing of the anguish filled collection After more than ten years one final plea in tears opened the thoughts of publishing the misery She explained how deep the poems had touched her and helped her to better understand cope and deal with her own battles with depression and other mental health issues This created a revelation that maybe someone could benefit from reading the work An exciting yet challenging journey was began to publish the works with hopes of helping those who struggle to understand They are not alone their thoughts match the thoughts of many others in the world My intentions would be for this book to create an awareness and explanation of what mental health illness feels like With your support this may well be the beginning of a journey that began lonely at 4 00 a m sitting in the bed with tears flowing from the cheeks Illiterate
