of logic and knowledge to a mental creativity that is able to leap to insightful and truthful conclusions on the basis of restricted evidence In an Aristotelian Account of Induction Groarke discusses the intellectual process through which we access the first principles of human thought the most basic concepts The laws of logic The universal claims of science and metaphysics And The deepest moral truths Following Aristotle and others Groarke situates the first stirrings of human understanding in a creative capacity for discernment that precedes knowledge even logic Relying on a new historical study of philosophical theories of inductive reasoning from Aristotle To The twenty first century Groarke explains how Aristotle offers a viable solution To The so called problem of induction while offering new contributions to contemporary accounts of reasoning and argument and challenging the conventional wisdom about induction In recovering and developing philosophical ideas that have been largely overlooked or misrepresented by more recent sources An Aristotelian Account of Induction makes a major contribution To The historical study of philosophy and to critical debate Buddhist Perspectives on Free Will Rick Repetti, 2016-07-28 Throughout the history of Buddhism little has been said prior to the Twentieth Century that explicitly raises the question whether we have free will though the Buddha rejected fatalism and some Buddhists have addressed whether karma is fatalistic Recently however Buddhist and Western philosophers have begun to explicitly discuss Buddhism and free will This book incorporates Buddhist philosophy more explicitly into the Western analytic philosophical discussion of free will both in order to render more perspicuous Buddhist ideas that might shed light on the Western philosophical debate and in order to render more perspicuous the many possible positions on the free will debate that are available to Buddhist philosophy The book covers Buddhist and Western perspectives on the problem of free will The puzzle of whether free will is possible if as Buddhists believe there is no agent self Therav da views Mah y na views Evidential considerations from science meditation and skepticism The first book to bring together classical and contemporary perspectives on free will in Buddhist thought it is of interest to academics working on Buddhist and Western ethics comparative philosophy metaphysics philosophy of mind philosophy of action agency and personal identity Value and Values Roger T. Ames, Peter D. divorce of economics from ethics While the domains of economics and ethics were from antiquity through at least the eighteenth century understood in many cultures to be coterminous and mutually entailing the modern assumption has been that the goal of maximizing human prosperity and the aim of justly enhancing our lives as persons and as communities were functionally and practically distinct Working from a wide array of perspectives the contributors to this volume offer a set of challenges to the assumed independence of the quantitative and qualitative dimensions of human and planetary well being Reflecting on the complex interrelationship among economics justice and equity the book resists one size fits all approaches and struggles to revitalize the marriage of economics and ethics by activating cultural differences as the basis of mutual contribution to shared human flourishing The publication of this important collection will stimulate or extend critical debates among scholars and students working in a number of disciplines in the social sciences and humanities including philosophy history environmental studies economics and law Contributors Roger T Ames James Behuniak Jr Steve Bein Nalini Bhushan Purushottama Bilimoria Steven Burik Amita Chatterjee Baoyan Cheng Gordon Davis Jay L Garfield Steven F Geisz Peter D Hershock Larry A Hickman Kathleen M Higgins Heidi M Hurd Thomas P Kasulis Workineh Kelbessa Lori Keleher Oliver Leaman James McRae Jin Y Park James Peterman Naoko Saito May Sim Robert Smid Paul Standish Kenneth W Stickers Karsten J Struhl Meera Sushila Viswanathan Wu Shiu Ching Xu Di T Yamauchi Yang Liuxin

Garfield, Jan Westerhoff, 2015-03-16 Madhyamaka and Yogacara are the two principal schools of Mahayana Buddhist philosophy While Madhyamaka asserts the ultimate emptiness and conventional reality of all phenomena Yogacara is usually considered to be idealistic This collection of essays addresses the degree to which these philosophical approaches are consistent or complementary Indian and Tibetan doxographies often take these two schools to be philosophical rivals They are grounded in distinct bodies of sutra literature and adopt what appear to be very different positions regarding the analysis of emptiness and the status of mind Madhyamaka Yogacara polemics abound in Indian Buddhist literature and Tibetan doxographies regard them as distinct systems Nonetheless scholars have tried to synthesize the two positions for centuries This volume offers new essays by prominent experts on both these traditions who address the question of the degree to which these philosophical approaches should be seen as rivals or as allies In answering the question of whether Madhyamaka and Yogacara can be considered compatible contributors engage with a broad range of canonical literature and relate the texts to contemporary philosophical problems
