Symbolic Confrontations Muslims Imagining The State In Africa:

Symbolic Confrontations Donal B. Cruise O'Brien, 2003 These essays are based on the author's writings since the 1980s but they are rewritten and reconsidered here around the unifying theme of the book's title Symbolic Confrontations NA, 2016-05-24 Donal Cruise O'Brien is a leading authority on Islam in Africa This is a collection of his writing over the last 30 years some significantly rewritten to render this a coherent book to use for teaching about the interplay between politics and Islam in Africa The author's main argument is that much of politics in Africa is negotiated through use of symbols and can not be separated from the religious origins and the systems of belief from which they originate The book focuses on Senegal a fascinating example of the spread of Muslim brotherhoods and their overarching influence on the construction and decision making processes of the state

The State, Ethnicity, and Gender in Africa Scott Straus, Aili Mari Tripp, 2024 Postcolonialism the politics of ethnic and religious identity and the role of women in African society and politics have become important and often connected foci in African studies Here fifteen chapters explore these themes in tandem With essays that span the continent this volume showcases the political histories challenges and promise of contemporary Africa Written in honor of Crawford Young a foundational figure in the study of African politics the essays reflect the breadth and intellectual legacy of this towering scholar and illustrate the vast impact Young had and continues to have on the field The book's themes build from his seminal publications and the essays were written by leading scholars who were trained by Young

Tracing Language Movement in Africa Ericka A. Albaugh, Kathryn M. de Luna, 2018-01-10 Many disciplines study language movement and change in Africa but they rarely interact Here eighteen scholars from a range of disciplines explore differing conceptions of language movement in Africa through empirical case studies

Faithful to Secularism David T. Buckley, 2017-03-14 Religion and democracy can make tense bedfellows Secular elites may view religious movements as conflict prone and incapable of compromise while religious actors may fear that anticlericalism will drive religion from public life Yet such tensions are not inevitable from Asia to Latin America religious actors coexist with and even help to preserve democracy In Faithful to Secularism David T. Buckley argues that political institutions that encourage an active role for public religion are a key part in explaining this variation He develops the concept of benevolent secularism to describe institutions that combine a basic division of religion and state with extensive room for participation of religious actors in public life He traces the impact of benevolent secularism on religious and secular elites both at critical junctures in state formation and as politics evolves over time Buckley shows how religious and secular actors build credibility and shared norms over time and explains how such coalitions can endure challenges from both religious revivals and periods of anticlericalism Faithful to Secularism tests this institutional theory in Ireland Senegal and the Philippines using a blend of archival interview and public opinion data These case studies illustrate how even countries with an active religious majority can become and remain faithful to secularism

Democracy, Islam, and Secularism in Turkey Ahmet T. Kuru, Alfred Stepan, 2012-02-21 While Turkey has grown as a world power promoting the image of a progressive and stable nation several choices in policy have strained its relationship with the East and the West Providing historical social and religious context for this behavior the essays in Democracy Islam and Secularism in Turkey examine issues relevant to Turkish debates and global concerns from the state's position on religion to its involvement with the European Union Written by experts in a range of disciplines the chapters explore the toleration of diversity during the Ottoman Empire's classical period the erosion of ethno religious heterogeneity in modern pre democratic times Kemalism and its role in modernization and nation building the changing political strategies of the military and the effect of possible EU membership on domestic reforms The essays also offer a cross Continental comparison of multiple secularisms as well as political parties considering especially Turkey's Justice and Development Party in relation to Europe's Christian Democratic parties Contributors tackle critical research questions such as the legacy of the Ottoman Empire's ethno religious plurality and the way in which Turkey's assertive secularism can be softened to allow greater space for religious actors They address the military's guardian role in Turkey's secularism the implications of recent constitutional amendments for democratization and the consequences and benefits of Islamic activism's presence within a democratic system No other collection confronts Turkey's contemporary evolution so vividly and thoroughly or offers such expert analysis of its crucial social and political systems Contributors Karen Barkey Columbia University mit Cizre Istanbul Sehir University M S kr Hanioglu Princeton University Stathis N Kalyvas Yale University Ahmet T Kuru San Diego State University Joost Lagendijk Sabanc University Ergun zbudun Bilkent University Alfred Stepan Columbia University

Long-Distance Nationalism in the Global City Bennett Eason Cross, 2022-08-15 Focusing on migration within the global south Bennett Eason Cross uses the example of the Malian trade diaspora in Lagos to argue that aspects of the original model of the transmigrant were based on labor migrations from global south to global north that are not representative of their south to south counterparts In Long Distance Nationalism in the Global City A Cultural History of the Malian Diaspora in Lagos Nigeria Cross notes that the cultural and racial differences between migrant communities and their host societies in Europe and the U S are often narrower or even nonexistent in south to south migrations which shapes different outcomes As this multi site case study reveals however these differences in outcome can seem counterintuitive as immigrants in the north typically develop loyalties to both origin and host nations whereas among the Malians in Lagos affinity for the host nation was virtually nonexistent despite a common regional culture He complicates the standard bilateral struggle for belonging between host and origin societies by examining the role of Islam both as a parallel transnational movement and as a competing localized form This book analyzes the deep historical structure of each society to explain the Malians failure to develop the multiple national identities observed in other diasporas Obafemi Awolowo and the Making of Remo Insa Nolte,2019-08-06 Insa Nolte examines the evolution of a distinctive Yoruba community Remo and the central role of the Remo born Nationalist and Yoruba leader Obafemi Awolowo 1909 1987 Beginning in the nineteenth century public participation played an important role in challenging or confirming local hierarchies in Remo and this historical dynamic had a significant impact on Awolowo s vision both for Yoruba and for Nigerian politics When he ascended to the national stage in the 1950s Awolowo seized the opportunity to reshape Remo s political identity proving that the leader was both a product and a producer of Remo politics Based on a subtle analysis of local level politics this book argues that traditional and modern structures of participation are integral in Yoruba politics and in the African postcolonial state At the same time the volume s focus on Awolowo constitutes an important contribution to the debate over one of Nigeria s most influential politicians

Tolerance, Democracy, and Sufis in Senegal Mamadou Diouf,2013 This collection critically examines tolerance secularism and respect for religious diversity within a social and political system dominated by Sufi brotherhoods Through a detailed analysis of Senegal s political economy essays trace the genealogy and dynamic exchange among these concepts while investigating public spaces and political processes and their reciprocal engagement with the state Sunni reformist and radical groups and non religious organizations The anthology provides a rich and nuanced historical ethnography of the formation of Senegalese democracy illuminating the complex trajectory of the Senegalese state and reflecting on similar postcolonial societies Offering rare perspectives on the country s successes since liberation the volume identifies the role of religion gender culture ethnicity globalization politics and migration in the reconfiguration of the state and society and it makes an important contribution to democratization theory Islamic studies and African studies
