Symbolism Rüdiger Ahrens, Florian Kläger, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2017 Symbolism Florian Kläger, Klaus Stierstorfer, Marlena Tronicke, 2022-10-03 Special Focus Omission edited by Patrick Gill Throughout literary history and in many cultures we encounter an astute use of conspicuous absences to conjure an imagined reality into a recipient's mind The term omission as used in the present study then demarcates a common artistic phenomenon a silence blank or absence introduced against the recipient's generic or experiential expectations but which nonetheless frequently encapsulates the tenor of the work as a whole Such omissions can be employed for their affective potential when emotions represented or evoked by the text are deemed to be beyond words They can be employed to raise epistemological questions as when an omission marks the limits of what can be known Ethical questions can also be approached by means of omissions as when a character's voice is omitted for instance Finally omission always carries within it the potential to reflect on the media and genres on which it is brought to bear as its efficacy depends on the recipient's generic expectations omission is frequently characterized by a high degree of meta discursiveness This volume investigates the various strategies with which the phenomenon of omission is employed across a range of textual forms and in different cultures to conclusively argue for its status as a highly effective and near universal form of artistic signification Symbolism 21 Florian Kläger, Klaus Stierstorfer, Marlena Tronicke, 2021-10-25 Special Focus Law and Literature This special focus issue of Symbolism takes a look at the theoretical equation of law and literature and its inherent symbolic dimension The authors all approach the subject from the perspective of literary and book studies foregrounding literature's potential to act as supplementary to a very wide variety of laws spread over historical geographical cultural and spatial grounds The theoretical ground laid here thus posits both literature and law in the narrow sense The articles gathered in this special issue analyse Anglophone literatures from the Renaissance to the present day and cover the three major genres narrative drama and poetry The contributions address questions of the law's psychoanalytic subconscious copyright and censorship literary negotiations of colonial and post colonial territorial laws the European refugee debate and migration narratives fictional debates on climate change contemporary feminist drama and classic 19th century legal narratives This volume includes two insightful analyses of poetic texts with a special focus on the fact that poetry has often been neglected within the field of law and literature research Special Focus editor Franziska Quabeck Westfälische Wilhelms Universität Münster Germany Symbolism 16 Rüdiger Ahrens, Klaus Stierstorfer, 2016 Border Cinema Monica Hanna, Rebecca A. Sheehan, 2019-04-15 The rise of digital media and globalization's intensification since the 1990s have significantly refigured global cinema's form and content The coincidence of digitalization and globalization has produced what this book helps to define and describe as a flourishing border cinema whose aesthetics reflect construct intervene in denature and reconfigure geopolitical borders This collection demonstrates how border cinema resists contemporary border fortification processes showing how cinematic media have
