The Evolution of Culture Robin Ian MacDonald Dunbar, Chris Knight, Camilla Power, 1999 The Evolution of Culture seeks to explain the origins evolution and character of human culture from language art music and ritual to the use of technology and the beginnings of social political and economic behavior It is concerned not only with where and when human culture evolved but also asks how and why The book draws together original contributions by archaeologists anthropologists linguists and psychologists The contributors call into question the gulf currently separating the natural from the cultural sciences Human capacities for culture they argue evolved through standard processes of natural and sexual selection and properly be analyzed as biological adaptations

The Archaeology

of Rock-Art Christopher Chippindale, Paul S. C. Taçon, 1998 Pictures painted and carved in caves and on open rock surfaces are amongst our loveliest relics from prehistory This pioneering set of sparkling essays goes beyond guesses as to what the pictures mean instead exploring how we can reliably learn from rock art as a material record of distant times in short rock art as archaeology Sometimes contact period records offer some direct insight about indigenous meaning so we can learn in that informed way More often we have no direct record and instead have to use formal methods to learn from the evidence of the pictures themselves The book's eighteen papers range wide in space and time from the Palaeolithic of Europe to nineteenth century Australia Using varied approaches within the consistent framework of informed and proven methods they make key advances in using the striking and reticent evidence of rock art to archaeological benefit A Brief Systematic Theology of the Symbol Joshua Mobley, 2021-11-18 How do Christians understand the Trinity How does this understanding relate to other Christian teachings In conversation with key thinkers in contemporary and classical theology particularly Henri de Lubac Karl Rahner Thomas Aquinas and Augustine this book argues that a theology of symbols can help us glimpse the mystery of the Trinity and see how this central Christian teaching corresponds to Christian understandings of creation humanity and the church A symbol is not here understood as an arbitrary sign but as a sign that mediates the presence of the symbolized Joshua Mobley examines the understanding of the Father as symbolized in the Son who is the symbol of the Father by the symbolism of the Spirit the personal agent of unity between Father and Son These trinitarian relations then structure creaturely relations to God God is symbolized in creation which is a symbol of God by participation in the Son and the church is symbolism the union of creation with God by the power of the Spirit Mobley thus argues that a theology of symbol helps coordinate trinitarian theology with key themes in Christian dogmatics History as the Story of Freedom Clark Butler, 2021-11-15 The purpose of this book is to advance responsible rehabilitation of the speculative philosophy of history It challenges the idea popularized by thinkers such as and Claude Lévi Strauss and Jean-François Lyotard that historical meta-mythology and meta-narrative are philosophically obsolete As long as humanity viewed anthropologically lives by overarching narrative the quest for a version that survives rational criticism remains vital Here human rights serve as the key to unlock such a version Despite the fact that the Hegelian philosophy of history has often been derided something very similar currently functions as the official ideology of the world community the idea of history as the story of freedom This book does not retell the world historical story of freedom Rather it uncovers it beginning with the current age of human rights and working backward through the great role model civilizations of history Its conclusion is that a forward retelling of the story of freedom as the story of human rights can be justified by de-westernizing the story The book contains critical responses from specialized scholars and representative of selected world cultures The volume includes illustrations and a guest Afterword by Donald Phillip Verene It is a companion volume to the author's Hegel's Logic Between History and Dialectic North-western University Press 1996 Catholicism and the Modern Mind Malcolm Quin, 1912 Decorative
