The British Australasian ,1919 Australasian Drama Studies ,1993 The Literary World ,1915 Take Shelter Janet Baker,1993 Overview of housing in Australia which discusses topics such as homelessness unique aspects of Australian housing alternative styles of housing and financing and managing shelter requirements Includes a glossary and an index The writer is co author of TWork A study in Australian society The Bulletin ,1971 Print ,1994-05 Billboard ,1984-11-03 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends Housing Australia Affordably National Shelter (Australia),2009 Public Housing in Australia National Shelter (Australia),1994 The Cost Effectiveness of Australian Tenancy Support Programs for Formerly Homeless People , Housing Homelessness and You National Shelter (Australia),1996 No Place Like Home Peter Mares,2018-09-17 More than a million lower income households in Australia pay above the affordability benchmark for their housing costs More than 100 000 people are homeless Seventy per cent of us are concerned we ll never own property Yet owning a home is still seen by most Australians as an essential part of our way of life It is generally accepted that Australia is in the grip of a housing crisis But we are divided along class generational and political lines about what to do about it Award winning journalist Peter Mares draws on academic research statistical data and personal interviews to create a clear picture of Australia s housing problems and to offer practical solutions Expertly informed and eminently readable No Place Like Home cuts through the noise and asks the common sense questions about why we do housing the way we do and what the alternatives might be Peter Mares is an independent writer and researcher He is a contributing editor with the online magazine Inside Story a senior moderator with the Cranlana Programme and an adjunct fellow in the Centre for Urban Transitions at Swinburne University Peter was a broadcaster with the ABC for twenty five years serving as a foreign correspondent based in Hanoi and presenting national radio programs His 2016 book Not Quite Australian How Temporary Migration Is Changing the Nation was shortlisted in the NSW Premier s Literary Awards No Place Like Home doesn t just crunch numbers convincingly It shows us through the compelling stories of people affected by the housing crisis how the whole fabric of our society is threatened if we cannot fairly address this fundamental human need for shelter Age Measured and compassionate Mares writes simply and clearly about complex issues and policies and avoids the sensationalism and bombast with which they are frequently handled in the media Australian Peter Mares gives a lucid overview of Australia s housing crisis This book offers a timely discussion of an increasingly urgent and complex problem Accessible and sympathetic No Place Like Home should kick off some serious policy debates and will appeal to the general reader Books Publishing One of the most important books published in Australia in 2016 An impressive account of one of the biggest scandals in contemporary Australia how we ve sleepwalked into a policy environment that encourages the systemic exploitation of an underclass of millions of temporary migrants in our country Tim Watts on Not Quite Australian Mares is indefatigable in his data gathering and scrupulously even handed in weighing the evidence He strikes an exquisite balance between the personal and scholarly the humane and tough mindedness Not Quite Australian is big picture storytelling with a pulse always keeping ideals blunt realities and people the exposed who want a place and the lucky ones entrenched here in the frame Australian on Not Quite Australian Compellingly readable Mares research is comprehensive intellectually deft ethically and philosophically grounded but digestible and personally attested This is on the ground people focused journalism of the highest kind Sydney Morning Herald on Not Quite Australian This detailed careful and topical book is illuminated by the personal stories of individuals and families caught up in a complex and bureaucratic system and it leaves a lasting impression of an Australia that is becoming a two tiered country Powerful and persuasive Overland on Not Quite Australian Housing the Homeless Australia. Parliament. House of Representatives. Standing Committee on Family, Community, Housing and Youth, Annette Ellis, 2009 The Housing and Homelessness Journeys of Refugees in Australia , A Way Forward for Housing Indigenous Peoples in Australia National Shelter (Australia), 2010 In July 2010 representatives from Aboriginal and mainstream housing organisations and peak bodies met in Brisbane under the auspices of National Shelter to discuss a range of housing issues facing Aboriginal peoples and to develop possible solutions In August National Shelter released a policy platform entitled A way forward for housing Indigenous peoples in Australia which calls for an urgent injection of resources to address the housing needs of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples National Shelter web site Shelter from the Storm Siobhan McHugh, 1999-01-01 In Shelter from the Storm Siobhan McHugh tells the compelling stories of past and present tenants of social housing Told with honesty and humour they provide unique insights into the extraordinary qualities of ordinary people and the diversity of Australian society Teachers artists taxi drivers Muslims Catholics Mormons Iraqis Australians and Russians old and young people orphans and divorcees are among the people to be found in public and community housing Former tenants who have gone on to become tall poppies also tell their story maverick Labor politician Mark Latham media mogul John Alexander union leader Jennie George and actor and celebrity Bryan Brown BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Housing Assistance and Non-shelter Outcomes , 2003 The key areas in which housing assistance programs may influence non shelter outcomes include Physical and mental health status Education status Labour market outcomes Crime Community participation and social cohesion Income wealth distribution and poverty outcomes and Locational advantage This study provides a systematic review of these effects In addition this report has identified key research questions which have not been adequately addressed in the Australian context and which need to be addressed if housing and other arms of economic and social policy are to proceed on a well informed basis A Submission to the Australian Housing Research Council from Shelter Mark Harris, Greg Thompson, 1979 Accommodation in Crisis

Catherine Robinson, Rose Searby, 2007-01-01 This research monograph examines the lack of crisis accommodation services for single homeless women in Sydney with particular focus on Western Sydney The book concludes that while single homeless women remain invisible as a target group in need of accommodation assistance they will continue to be displaced from their home suburbs and forced to solve their own homelessness through problematic practices such as couch surfing and swapping sex for shelter No Place Like Home ,1987
