The Poet's Tomb Martin Corless-Smith, 2020-04-23 Every poem an epitaph every poem a ticket to ride from Sappho s bittersweet eroticism to the wild civility of Robert Herrick Martin Corless Smith is a poet painter and translator of canonical poems and each of these vocations is on view in this memorable defense of poetry as he reads from Virgil to Notley in sight of the impossible blue of Bellini s Doge Leonardo Loredan and Piranesi s otherworldly Pyramid of Cestius while contemplating the paradoxes of the finite body of the poet dreaming immortal poetry Keith Tuma Querying the embodiment of poetry Corless Smith begins in the body of the poet living and or dead and passes from there through the body of the reader in order to argue the mutual construction of the body of a poem as a shared body and a new commons which like all things vital to survival air water hope must be maintained as open and available to all These succinct elegant essays perform this maintenance and in the process return us to all poetry charged with the energy and insight necessary to

Stories in a New Skin Keavy Martin, 2012-12-15 In an age where southern power holders look north and see only vacant polar landscapes isolated communities and exploitable resources it is important to note that the Inuit homeland encompasses extensive philosophical political and literary traditions Stories in a New Skin is a seminal text that explores these Arctic literary traditions and in the process reveals a pathway into Inuit literary criticism Author Keavy Martin considers writing storytelling and performance from a range of genres and historical periods the classic stories and songs of Inuit oral traditions life writing oral histories and contemporary fiction poetry and film and discusses the ways in which these texts constitute an autonomous literary tradition She draws attention to the interconnection between language form and context and illustrates the capacity of Inuit writers singers and storytellers to instruct diverse audiences in the appreciation of Inuit texts Although Eurowestern academic contexts and literary terminology are a relatively foreign presence in Inuit territory Martin builds on the inherent adaptability and resilience of Inuit genres in order to foster greater southern awareness of a tradition whose audience has remained primarily northern Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William picture book that tells a story with pictures Will words take second place to illustrations Decide first whether you will write a story book or a picture book Then use the images in your poem to clarify your writing You won t be able to read a picture book into a tape recorder or turn it into an audio book or radio play You will be able to narrate a word book for audio playing Start with an inspirational poem proverb or song lyrics Ask children what makes them laugh You can make something out of nothing You can make a story out of anything intangible such as an idea with a plan still in your mind Capture your children s dreams proverbs song lyrics and the surprise elements that make them laugh Record imagination what if talk and personal history A folktale or story is something that could come from any place in the past from science or from nothing that you can put your hands on What children want in a book poem or folklore is a cave where they can go to be themselves When suspending belief children still want to be themselves as they navigate fantasy The story book becomes a den or tree house where children can go inside shut the door and play Introduce children to poetry by showing how you transform your poem into a children s book by expanding and emphasizing significant events in the life story of one child Poems memorable experiences significant life events or turning points are all ways to make something out of nothing tangible You begin re working a concept framework or vision Here s how to write publish and promote salable material from concept to framework to poem to children s book step by step
