Taking the Lead Sheila Robertson,2012-09-01 In an extensive and frank exploration leaders in women s coaching discuss the values women bring to the coaching profession their quest for equal access ways career aspirations and motherhood are juggled how to negotiate contracts and encounters with homophobia harassment and bullying They also identify the challenges to progress and highlight the essential changes that need to be made This volume will be of interest to sports organizations leaders and educators athletes and parents researchers in sports and gender studies and politicians and policy makers Women in leadership roles in business public service education and their communities will find the wisdom contained in Taking the Lead readily transferable to their respective arenas Introduction by Dru Marshall Share, Don't Take the Lead Craig L. Pearce,Charles C. Manz,Henry P. Sims,2014-01-01 Share Don't Take the Lead is a book that offers an alternative perspective on leadership The philosophy of shared leadership is straightforward Leadership does not derive solely from position authority or hierarchy Instead leadership is something that can be executed by anyone who has the best knowledge or skill to undertake the leadership necessary in any given situation Shared leadership is especially relevant for example in empowered teams where shared leadership can be initiated from any team member at any time depending on the needs of the moment and the capabilities of the individuals. But the notion of shared leadership is also appropriate in a larger context. For example, an individual lower in the hierarchy can provide leadership if that person is best qualified to exercise it. Shared leadership also shows how hierarchical leaders with formal authority can use empowerment to develop leadership in others. This book tells the tales of how multiple trail-blazing organizations used shared leadership to build high performance. The notion of shared leadership seems to contradict many of the bedrock ideas of efficient management and effective organizations. A typical first reaction is "It'll never work here." Yet the organizations that get it and implement this new powerful approach tend to be more innovative and to outperform their nay-sayer competitors. In fact, shared leadership is one of the most important ideas to hit business in recent years. Our recent feature article about shared leadership in the Wall Street Journal is testimony to that. Shared leadership can provide a way for companies to increase productivity, quality, and flexibility while meeting the competitiveness challenge. Share the Lead provides new insights and information about how to push the organizational envelope to new frontiers.

The Ministry of the Word, Vol. 01, No. 03 Various Authors, 2023-03-03 In this issue of The Ministry we conclude our series of messages entitled Vision in God s Economy comprising Brother Lee s fellowship with the elders and co workers in Taipei in March 1986 The present vision and practice in the Lord s recovery are the culmination of all the visions which God has given to men in His holy Word Our vision and practice today are according to God s New Testament economy to build up the Body of Christ to consummate the New Jerusalem This is the vision which matches the age and it is the basis of the one accord among us Six other messages in this issue are taken from the International Conference of Co workers and Elders in September 1997 The subject of this conference was Vital Factors in the Lord s Present Move These vital factors are related to the apostles teaching the Body of Christ and the elders shepherding of the church Caring diligently for these factors ensures that in our living and laboring we are kept in the central lane of the divine revelation with one way for one goal the goal of God s eternal economy which we carry out by shepherding in cooperation with Christ s heavenly ministry These messages were spoken by twelve brothers in a blending way and they include excerpts from Brother Lee's written ministry. In this issue we report on our endeavor to acquire an enlarged campus for the spread of the work of God's New Testament ministry in the Lord's recovery. We also provide fellowship concerning the Lord's move on the earth through letters from Ghana, France, Poland, and Romania. Lastly, we provide a report concerning the translation of the written ministry into the Spanish language. Mission Accomplished Robert Uda, 2004-02. Most returned missionaries say that their missions have been the most rewarding experience of their lifetime. It is no wonder their maturity, testimony, and knowledge grow phenomenally. There is no greater feeling than to teach, convert, and baptize a new family into the Church. The miraculous changes that occur in people as they accept, live, and progress in the Gospel are worth all of the missionaries' personal sacrifices. If we lovingly encourage and prepare our sons to serve full-time missions, they will accept the challenge. They will happily prepare themselves and look forward with great anticipation to serve the Lord anywhere in the world for two years. If you do the things suggested in Mission Accomplished, you will have successful missionaries who serve honorable missions. You will be showered with never expected blessings. Indeed, the windows of heaven will open wide to pour out innumerable blessings from on high. I recommend the following to parents of all currently serving missionaries: Pray for them daily. Write to them weekly, keep letters positive and encouraging. Send them periodic care packages. Do not call them unless permitted by the mission president. Help them complete an honorable mission. If you do these things, you will reap blessings galore. Your missionaries rely on the support they receive from home. They need your support. They look forward to your support. Don't let them down. The Ministry, Vol. 12, No. 03 Various Authors, 2008-03-01. This issue of The Ministry contains a complete record of the six messages given during the 2007 Thanksgiving Weekend Conference held in Boston, Massachusetts, on November 22-25, 2007. The general subject of the conference was Closely Following the Present Vision of the Lord's Recovery. The burden of these messages can be summarized in the following four statements: 1. To live out and work out the New Jerusalem is to live out and work out God's complete salvation according to the intrinsic essence of the unique New Testament ministry for the reality of the Body of Christ and a new revival. 2. God became man so that man may become God in life and nature but not in the Godhead to produce and build up the Body of Christ for the fulfillment of God's economy to close this age and bring Christ back to set up His kingdom. 3. God's intention is through the universal woman to bring forth the man-child, the stronger part of God's people whom He will use to defeat His enemy and bring in His kingdom. and 4. We must closely follow the present vision of the Lord's recovery by holding to the teaching of the apostles to remain in the essence of oneness. The Reports and Announcements section includes a schedule concerning the upcoming conferences and trainings for 2008. Lead with Vision, Inspire with Action: The Essential Traits of Transformational Leaders Silas Mary, 2025-02-19.
