Soon after the resignation of General Harrison, in the summer of 1814, President Madison evinced an unabated confidence in his abilities and integrity by appointing him to treat with the Indians, in conjunction with his old companions in arms, Governor Shelby and General Cass. In the following year, he was placed at the head of another commission, appointed to treat with the north-western tribes. The honourable and advantageous treaties made in both these cases, afforded new instances of the unfailing success, that has always attended General Harrison's negotiations with the Indians.

In 1816, he was elected, by a large majority, a member of the House of Representatives in Congress, from Ohio.

Twentieth Century Fox Michael Troyan,Jeffrey Paul Thompson,Stephen X. Sylvester,2017-08-15 Here it is the first time look at the remarkable American multinational mass media empire and its century of entertainment the story of Twentieth Century Fox 1915 2015 The controversies and scandals are here as are the extraordinary achievements Among other firsts the book offers fun tours of its historic production and ranch facilities including never before told stories about its stars and creative personalities The authors primarily tell a celebratory tale but most importantly an accurate one Bernard Herrmann's The Ghost and Mrs. Muir David Cooper,2005-08-04 Regarded as one of the greatest film composers of all time Bernard Herrmann was responsible for some of the most memorable music in film His work with Alfred Hitchcock produced a slew of classics including Vertigo 1958 North by Northwest 1959 and Psycho 1960 Several years before collaborating with Hitchcock however Herrmann composed the brilliant score for The Ghost and Mrs Muir 1947 which remained a personal favorite of the composer's Herrmann's score reinforces the film's romantic theme and much of the music has an appropriately elegiac quality In mood orchestration and even to some extent thematic identity it seems to prefigure his music for Vertigo In this latest addition to the Scarecrow Film Score Guide series author David Cooper examines Herrmann's career in general as well as the specific elements that went into the creation of The Ghost and Mrs Muir's score Cooper traces the development of Herrmann's craft as a film composer especially through his radio work where he made contact with many of the great artists of the age most notably Orson Welles This association was to give him a passport to Hollywood and led to the scoring of his first film Citizen Kane Herrmann's subsequent film scores of the 1940s included The Devil and Daniel Webster The Magnificent Ambersons and Jane Eyre In this guide Cooper considers Herrmann's musical technique and offers a theorization of some of the ways in which music can be meaningful in film He also explores non musical contexts of the film including the screenplay's relationship to the popular novel from which it was adapted as well as the contribution of director Joseph L Mankiewicz the performances of Gene Tierney and Rex Harrison and the editing of Dorothy Spencer Cooper also provides a quantitative evidence based study of the score In doing so he discusses the extent to which Herrmann adopted screenwriter Philip Dunne's suggestions for music in

Michael Curtiz Alan K. Burt Lancaster Kate Buford, 2013-09-18 Startlingly handsome witty fanatically loyal charming scary and intensely sexual Burt Lancaster was the quintessential b te du cin ma one of Hollywood's great stars He was as well an intensely private man and he authorized no biographies in his lifetime Kate Buford is the first writer to win the cooperation of Lancaster's widow close friends and colleagues and her book is a revelation Here is Lancaster the man from his teenage years bolting the Depression era immigrant neighborhood of East Harlem where he grew up for the life of a circus acrobat then the electric New York theater of the 1930s then the dying days of vaudeville We see his production company Hecht Hill Lancaster become the biggest independent of the 1950s a bridge between the studio era and modern filmmaking With the power he derived from it we see him gain a remarkable degree of control which he used to become the auteur of his own career His navigation through the anti Communist witch hunts made him an example of a star who tweaked the noses of HUAC and survived His greatest roles in Sweet Smell of Success Elmer Gantry Birdman of Alcatraz The Swimmer Atlantic City kept to the progressive edge that had originated in the tolerant diverse reforming principles of his childhood And in the extraordinary complete roster of his films From Here to Eternity Gunfight at the O K Corral Judgment at Nuremberg The Leopard 1900 and Field of Dreams among many others he proved to be both a master of commercial movies that pleased a worldwide audience and an actor who pushed himself beyond stardom into cinematic art Kate Buford has written a dynamic biography of a passionate and committed star the first full scale study of one of the last great unexamined Hollywood lives Victor Fleming Michael Sragow,2013-12-10 This definitive biography chronicles the life and work of the legendary director of Gone With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz Victor Fleming was the most sought after director in Hollywood s golden age renowned for his work across an astounding range of genres from gritty westerns to screwball comedies romances boddy pictures and family entertainment Yet this chameleon like versatility has resulted in his relative obscurity today despite his having directed two of the most iconic movies of all time Fleming is best remembered for Gone With the Wind and The Wizard of Oz but he directed more than forty films including classics like Red Dust Test Pilot Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde and Captains Courageous Fleming created enduring screen personas for Clark Gable Spencer Tracy and Gary Cooper as well as for Ingrid Bergman Clara Bow and Norma Shearer who were among his many lovers In this definitive biography Michael Sragow restores the director to the pantheon of great American filmmakers correcting a major oversight in Hollywood history It is the dramatic story of a man at the center of the most exciting period in American filmmaking Reconstructing American Historical Cinema J.E. Smyth,2006-10-27 In Reconstructing American Historical Cinema From Cimarron to Citizen Kane J E Smyth dramatically departs from the traditional understanding of the relationship between film and history By looking at production records scripts and contemporary reviews Smyth argues that certain classical Hollywood filmmakers were actively engaged in a self conscious and often critical filmic writing of national history Her volume is a major reassessment of American historiography and cinematic historians from the advent of sound to the beginning of wartime film production in 1942 Focusing on key films such as Cimarron 1931 The Public Enemy 1931 Scarface 1932 Ramona 1936 A Star Is Born 1937 Jezebel 1938 Young Mr Lincoln 1939 Gone with the Wind 1939 Stagecoach 1939 and Citizen Kane 1941 Smyth explores historical cinema s connections to popular and academic historiography historical fiction and journalism providing a rich context for the industry s commitment to American history Rather than emphasizing the divide between American historical cinema and historical writing Smyth explores the continuities between Hollywood films and history written during the first four decades of the twentieth century from Carl Becker's famous Everyman His Own Historian to Howard Hughes's Scarface to Margaret Mitchell and David O. Selznick's Gone with the Wind. Hollywood's popular and often controversial cycle of historical films from 1931 to 1942 confronted issues as diverse as frontier racism and women's experiences in the nineteenth century South, the decline of American society following the First World War, the rise of Al Capone, and the tragic history of Hollywood's silent era. Looking at rarely discussed archival material, Smyth focuses on classical Hollywood filmmakers' adaptation and scripting of traditional historical discourse and their critical revision of nineteenth and twentieth century American history. Reconstructing American Historical Cinema uncovers Hollywood's diverse and conflicted attitudes toward American history. This text is a fundamental challenge to the prevailing scholarship in film history and cultural studies.

Backstory Patrick McGilligan, 1986 Interviews with screenwriters Ronnie and Nancy Bob Colacello, 2004-10-01 Six years in the making with unprecedented access to Nancy Reagan and the couple's closest friends, here is the first volume in the definitive portrait of the remarkable career-building partnership between Ronald Reagan and Nancy Davis. 16-page photo insert John Ford at Work Lea Jacobs, 2025-10-01 John Ford at Work: Production Histories 1927-1939 explores the evolution of John Ford's career in the Hollywood studio system of the 1930s as the system itself changed in response to the coming of sound and the business downturn instigated by the Depression. Based upon a decade of research utilizing the studio files of Twentieth Century Fox, RKO, and Samuel Goldwyn, it delineates the director's collaborations with the producers, screenwriters, actors, and cinematographers that had the most impact on his production practices. It traces the major literary, cinematic, and musical sources from which he drew. It considers relevant changes in film technology and seeks to explain how they were incorporated into his style. Films analyzed include 4 Sons, The Black Watch, Arrowsmith, Air Mail, The Lost Patrol, The Informer, Judge Priest, Steamboat Round the Bend, The Prisoner of Shark Island, Wee Willie Winkie, Stagecoach, and Young Mr. Lincoln. Film Study Frank Manchel, 1990 The four volumes of Film Study include a fresh approach to each of the basic categories in the original edition. Volume one examines the film as film; volume two focuses on the thematic approach to film; volume three draws on the history of film; and volume four contains extensive appendices listing film distributors, sources, and historical information, as well as an index of authors, titles, and film personalities. An Empire of Their Own Neal Gabler, 2010-11-17 A provocative, original, and richly entertaining group biography of the Jewish immigrants who were the moving forces behind the creation of America's motion picture industry. The names Harry Cohn, William Fox, Carl Laemmle, Louis B. Mayer, Jack and Harry Warner, and Adolph Zukor are giants in the history of contemporary Hollywood. Outsiders who dared to invent their own vision of the American Dream, even to this day the American values defined largely by the movies of these migrants endure in American cinema and culture. Who these men were, how they came to dominate Hollywood, and what they gained and lost in the process is the exhilarating story of An Empire of Their Own. Hellman in Hollywood Bernard F. Dick, 1982 Though Hellman is best known for her work in theater and for her memoirs, much of her work has been adapted for movies She was deeply involved in writing film scripts and adapting the work of others to the screen Dick tells the history of Hellman s contributions to American film as a playwright screenwriter and adapter and analyses each play and its corresponding film to determine whether the adaptation achieves as a film what the original achieved as literature ISBN 0 8386 3140 1
