Books Out-of-print, 1980 Oil and Gas International Year Book, 1987 Fiction, 1876-1983: Titles R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, R.R. Bowker Company. Publications Systems Department, 1983 Book Review Index, 1980 "Better Living" William L. Bird, 1999. Better Living: Advertising Media and the New Vocabulary of Business Leadership 1935-1955 is a history of how big business learned to be both entertaining and persuasive when talking to the public. Examining the years from the Depression to postwar prosperity, Better Living follows the dissemination of a politically competitive claim of more new and better in industry and in life. Beginning with the changes in business-government relations during the New Deal, this study looks at the ways in which politically active corporations and their leaders learned how to speak at a time when speaking was not enough. Using archival sources such as the NBC, Ford Motor Company, DuPont, and Franklin Delano Roosevelt collections, William L. Bird Jr. establishes the importance of industrial films and their role in public relations and employee relations, as well as the use of dramatic radio productions in corporate public relations. The author examines the interplay between general mass radio and print advertising, radio program sponsorship, and scriptwriting, sponsored motion pictures, and television entertainment, as well as exhibitions and industrial fairs, and the role these media played in shaping ideas about American business and political and cultural institutions in this country for the decades to come.

Book Jacket Weapons of Mass Migration Kelly M. Greenhill, 2010-03-18. Greenhill offers the first systematic examination of forced migration as an important but largely unrecognized instrument of state influence. She shows both how often this unorthodox brand of coercion has been attempted and how successful it has been.
