A History of Global Capitalism Sambit Bhattacharyya, 2020-10-31 The book sets out to explore the economic motivations of imperial expansion under capitalism This undoubtedly is related to two fundamental research questions in economic sciences First what factors explain the divergence in living standards across countries under the capitalist economic system Second what ensures internal and external stability of the capitalist economic system The book adopts a unified approach to address these questions Using the standard growth model it shows that improvements in living standards are dependent on access to raw materials labour capital technology and perhaps most importantly economies of scale Empires ensure scale economy through guaranteed access to markets and raw materials The stability of the system depends on growth and distribution and it is not possible to have one without the other However the quest for growth and imperial expansion implies that one empire invariably comes into conflict with another This is perhaps the most unstable and potentially dangerous characteristic of the capitalist system Using extensive historical accounts the book shows that this inherent tension can be best managed by acknowledging mutual spheres of influence within the international system along the lines of the 1815 Vienna Congress This timely publication addresses not only students and scholars of economics geography political science and history but also general readers interested in a better understanding of economic development international relations and the history of global capitalism The Journal of Philosophy, Psychology and Scientific Methods, 1919 The History of the Battles and Adventures of the British, the Boers, and the Zulus, in Southern Africa, from 1495 to 1879, Including Every Particular of the Zulu War of 1879, with a Chronology Duncan Campbell Francis Moodie, 1879 Oregon Historical Quarterly Oregon Historical Society, 1923 History of the Carlock Family and Adventures of Pioneer Americans Marion Pomeroy Carlock, 1929 Terro-Human Future History H.
